

Local Temperature table with columns for Maximum, Minimum, and temperature values.

The Daily News

NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWS PRINCE RUPERT, B.C. THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1944

THE MARKETS table listing prices for various goods like Meat, Butter, and Eggs.

Table listing local tides for Friday, July 21, including High and Low tide times.

Table listing local tides for Friday, July 21, including High and Low tide times.

JAPAN BECOMING DESPERATE

HITLER BURNED AND BRUISED IN LIFE ATTEMPT LONDON, July 20 (CP)—D.N.B. News Agency...

Army Checked The Prince Rupert civilian recruiting committee is going into action to assist in the present campaign for volunteers...

Recruiting Discussed The Prince Rupert civilian recruiting committee is going into action to assist in the present campaign for volunteers...

German Army showed signs of breaking in hotly contested battlefront west of the Nieman River before the Russians today...

NEW RUSSIAN PUSH LONDON—Premier Joseph Stalin announced today that a new Russian offensive had begun west of the city of Korostyev in Poland.

2000 Bombers Over Germany LONDON, July 20 (CP)—Another two thousand American planes thundered over central Germany today...

Timing Times Election to Catch C.C.F. Off Guard MONTREAL, July 20—Political slinging has started in Alberta today...

Member now in the house, Elmer E. Roper, its provincial leader, expects to sweep the province...

BEATING THE GUN So political observers think it was a wise move for Premier Manning to call the issue now...

When the ninth legislature of the province dissolved last week, the Social Credit government had 35 seats...

When the ninth legislature of the province dissolved last week, the Social Credit government had 35 seats...

LIFE AND DEATH ON THE NORMANDY BEACHHEAD—An intensely dramatic picture on a Normandy beach following the invasion showing a body of British troops marching off after having landed in their assault boats...

Six Die In Crash Sam Jurmain of Prince Rupert Slightly Injured in Transport Plane Crash

VANCOUVER, July 20 (CP)—Six airmen were killed and eight injured in the crash of a Royal Canadian Air Force transport plane on the coast on Tuesday...

The complete list of victims of the crash is as follows: Killed: Lieut. Col. O. W. Steele, Vancouver...

CHUNGKING, July 20 (CP)—A strong Chinese force, driving against Hengyang, Japanese headquarters in Hunan Province following an enemy counter-attack on Chinese defenders 25 miles to the south...

Roosevelt Is In Normandy? LONDON, July 20—A London newspaper said yesterday that President Franklin D. Roosevelt would make his speech of acceptance of a fourth term nomination from the Normandy beachhead.

Greatest Robot Attack Is Made LONDON, July 20 (CP)—The Nazis launched their greatest flying robot bomb attack on London and southern England last night...

Buying Business On Q.C. Islands William J. Davies, manager of Canadian National Telegraphs, is negotiating for the purchase of the general store business of Frank Gale at Queen Charlotte City and expects to leave Prince Rupert about the end of August...

Munich Was Bomb Target LONDON, July 20—Munich was the principal bombing objective of another great 1000-plane assault against the Reich yesterday by the British and Canadian air forces.

Pressure On Hengyang Is Being Eased CHUNGKING, July 20 (CP)—A strong Chinese force, driving against Hengyang, Japanese headquarters in Hunan Province following an enemy counter-attack on Chinese defenders 25 miles to the south...

Felt Cramped, Bullet Missed R.A.C.F. BASE, Normandy, July 20—Writer's cramp probably saved Canadian navigator FO. Harvey Bliss of Calgary from serious injury or death in the nose of a Mitchell bomber after an attack on an ammunition dump behind the German lines in Normandy...

PUSH BACK NIPPONESE KANDY, July 20 (CP)—The Allies have pushed the Japanese invaders of India back as far as thirty miles below Imphal into the Palei sector near the Burma border and beat down sharp counter-attacks in fighting south of Ukhrul, Japanese advance base twenty-three miles northeast of Imphal...

McGeer Decries Bank Monopoly OTTAWA, July 20—G. G. McGeer, Liberal member for Vancouver-Burrard, in a four-hour discussion in the Parliamentary banking committee yesterday, declared that the banking monopoly would have to be broken or it would break the nation...

Douk Appeal Has Gone to Ottawa VANCOUVER, July 20—The case of the disrobing Doukhobors is to be taken to the Supreme Court of Canada for a test following the dismissal by the Appeal Court of British Columbia of the appeal of one of the men who had been sentenced to three years in New Westminster Penitentiary.

Churchill To Speak Soon LONDON, July 20 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill will deliver a statement to the House of Commons on the war situation August 2. The following day Parliament is expected to adjourn until August 26 subject to recall in case of emergency.

Prisoners Taken Leghorn-Ancona ROME, July 20—The Allies took 2,500 prisoners in the capture of Leghorn, west coast port of Italy, yesterday and captured 2,000 at Ancona on the east coast. The Fifth Army has advanced nine miles north of Leghorn and the Eighth ten miles beyond Ancona.

Bulletins

FORESTS CLOSED VICTORIA—Owing to the increased fire hazard, forest restrictions on Vancouver Island and the Lower Mainland have been extended to include all logging...

BIG RUM SHIPMENT HALIFAX—Sixty thousand gallons of Jamaica has arrived here for distribution in Canada to the services as well as liquor stores...

TO LAND ON GUAM? PEARL HARBOR—A task force of the United States navy has begun a bombardment of the island of Guam in a manner which suggests that troop landings may follow.

INQUIRY OF ARMY RIOT OTTAWA—Defence Minister J. L. Ralston said in Commons today that a court of enquiry had found that 150 men had been involved in a riot at Camp Petawawa but that the riot had not developed seriously...

BELGIAN PATRIOTS ACT LONDON—An underground revolt has broken out in Belgium, and has swept across the country as patriots act against the German occupation forces...

BOMB REICH HEAVILY LONDON—More than 3,000 American bombers swept over Germany today in the biggest daylight raid of the war. The attacks were widespread, planes from Britain hitting targets in the Leipzig region, and Italian-based planes hopping the Alps to hit Munich and Friedrichshafen...

Germany Would Bow to Soviet STOCKHOLM, July 20—The German government, it was reported here yesterday, made an attempt to negotiate a separate peace with Russia but the overture was completely rejected by the Soviet.

JAPS CHANGE THEIR TACTICS ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NEW GUINEA, July 20 (CP)—Stunned by the loss of 1369 men in unsuccessful frontal assaults, the Japanese changed tactics and are now attempting to outflank Allied lines within the Drinimur River area in British New Guinea...

McGeer Decries Bank Monopoly OTTAWA, July 20—G. G. McGeer, Liberal member for Vancouver-Burrard, in a four-hour discussion in the Parliamentary banking committee yesterday, declared that the banking monopoly would have to be broken or it would break the nation...

Douk Appeal Has Gone to Ottawa VANCOUVER, July 20—The case of the disrobing Doukhobors is to be taken to the Supreme Court of Canada for a test following the dismissal by the Appeal Court of British Columbia of the appeal of one of the men who had been sentenced to three years in New Westminster Penitentiary.

Churchill To Speak Soon LONDON, July 20 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill will deliver a statement to the House of Commons on the war situation August 2. The following day Parliament is expected to adjourn until August 26 subject to recall in case of emergency.

Prisoners Taken Leghorn-Ancona ROME, July 20—The Allies took 2,500 prisoners in the capture of Leghorn, west coast port of Italy, yesterday and captured 2,000 at Ancona on the east coast. The Fifth Army has advanced nine miles north of Leghorn and the Eighth ten miles beyond Ancona.

Tojo Gov't Removed TOKYO, July 20—Premier General Hideki Tojo and his entire government, confessing inability to win the war, has resigned and Emperor Hirohito has ordered the former minister of home security, Marquis Koriichi Kido, to form a new cabinet...

Moderates Take Over NEW YORK, July 20 (CP)—Tokyo radio announced today that General Kuriaki Koiso, governor-general of Korea, and Admiral Sumada Yonai had been chosen by Emperor Hirohito to form a new government following failure of Viscount Kido to do so...

Entire Reorganization of Nipponese Government in View of "Unprecedented Crisis" TOKYO, July 20—Premier General Hideki Tojo and his entire government, confessing inability to win the war, has resigned and Emperor Hirohito has ordered the former minister of home security, Marquis Koriichi Kido, to form a new cabinet...

McGeer Decries Bank Monopoly OTTAWA, July 20—G. G. McGeer, Liberal member for Vancouver-Burrard, in a four-hour discussion in the Parliamentary banking committee yesterday, declared that the banking monopoly would have to be broken or it would break the nation...

Douk Appeal Has Gone to Ottawa VANCOUVER, July 20—The case of the disrobing Doukhobors is to be taken to the Supreme Court of Canada for a test following the dismissal by the Appeal Court of British Columbia of the appeal of one of the men who had been sentenced to three years in New Westminster Penitentiary.

Churchill To Speak Soon LONDON, July 20 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill will deliver a statement to the House of Commons on the war situation August 2. The following day Parliament is expected to adjourn until August 26 subject to recall in case of emergency.

Prisoners Taken Leghorn-Ancona ROME, July 20—The Allies took 2,500 prisoners in the capture of Leghorn, west coast port of Italy, yesterday and captured 2,000 at Ancona on the east coast. The Fifth Army has advanced nine miles north of Leghorn and the Eighth ten miles beyond Ancona.

Allies Are Still Gaining In Normandy

Nazis Continue To Yield To British-American Push

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS OF ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, July 20—The British and Canadians are sweeping forward across France from Normandy in the direction of Paris, driving back all Nazi counter-attacks as a fluid tank battle on open country swirls on...

Churchill To Speak Soon LONDON, July 20 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill will deliver a statement to the House of Commons on the war situation August 2. The following day Parliament is expected to adjourn until August 26 subject to recall in case of emergency.

Prisoners Taken Leghorn-Ancona ROME, July 20—The Allies took 2,500 prisoners in the capture of Leghorn, west coast port of Italy, yesterday and captured 2,000 at Ancona on the east coast. The Fifth Army has advanced nine miles north of Leghorn and the Eighth ten miles beyond Ancona.

Churchill To Speak Soon LONDON, July 20 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill will deliver a statement to the House of Commons on the war situation August 2. The following day Parliament is expected to adjourn until August 26 subject to recall in case of emergency.

Prisoners Taken Leghorn-Ancona ROME, July 20—The Allies took 2,500 prisoners in the capture of Leghorn, west coast port of Italy, yesterday and captured 2,000 at Ancona on the east coast. The Fifth Army has advanced nine miles north of Leghorn and the Eighth ten miles beyond Ancona.

Churchill To Speak Soon LONDON, July 20 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill will deliver a statement to the House of Commons on the war situation August 2. The following day Parliament is expected to adjourn until August 26 subject to recall in case of emergency.