... or friendship at work in England

Have a "Coke", says the Canadian soldier in Trafalgar Square, and the British echo Righto! From the Thames to the St. Lawrence, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes—helps Canadians make friends overseas, just as it does out of your family icebox at home.

WREN IS 'CELLIST

Wendy Wearne of Victoria Would Form String Trio or Quartette

By C. W. CARNEY, R.C.N.V.R.
(This is the first of a series of articles on people in Prince Rupert who have become proficient on uncommon musical instruments.)

Among the members of the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service now stationed in Prince Rupert is Leading Wren Wendy Wearne, former cellist with the Victoria Symphony Orchestra, who is interested in forming a string trio or quartet and is seeking people who play violin or viola.

While violinists are rather scarce in this vicinity, Leading Wren Wearne is hopeful that such musicians will be located and that the group will be able to enhance the cultural standing of this city.

Far from being a stranger to this area, Leading Wren Wearne was born near Smithers and her family still lives in that locality.

However, it was while she was attending school near London, England, that she took lessons on the 'cello for three years. Before she began studying the 'cello she had taken piano instruction for some time but it was the baritone-voiced string instrument that caught her fancy.

During the 15 months she has been in the W.R.C.N.S. Leading Wren Wearne has found that she and her 'cello have often been in demand for entertainment purposes. Playing the instrument is just a hobby, of course, since her main duties are performed in the communications branch of the Navy.

Talent along musical lines seems to run in the Wearne family for her mother is an accomplished pianist and her sister plays the violin.

This modest Wren "killick" has always been fond of classical compositions and joined a music appreciation group soon after arriving here. Although she enjoys dancing she does not favor jazz. Unlike some string instrument players, however, she has no contempt at all for brass bands and, in fact, says that they have some admirable qualities.

Cupid Awaits The Invasion

LONDON, June 21 (AP)—The invasion may be a wedding march for Tienne, a 26-year-old Belgian marine serving on an Allied merchant ship. In a village church near Brussels, the beautiful Irene is waiting anxiously for him.

The two were getting ready to be married when the Germans marched into Belgium. Tienne who was in the Belgium army was captured and interned. In 1942 he escaped, made his way perilously to see his sweetheart, then stole away to England to continue the fight. He has a date now to get married as soon as Belgium is freed.

FIRST AID AT SEA
In sea battles, it used to be the custom to treat men with minor wounds before those seriously hurt so they could return quickly to their posts.

TERRACE

Hot, dry weather has been the order for the past week. The heat wave touched 87 in the shade on Saturday and there is every chance that this will be repeated or exceeded during the present hot spell.

Because of the continued rainless weather the village government has decreed that no hoses are to be used for watering grass plots and gardens.

Mrs. N. Sherwood left for Hazelton on Saturday to relieve an acute shortage in the nursing staff at Wrinch Memorial Hospital.

The local police station is being enlarged, the capacity for prisoners is being trebled and other expansion has spread the premises out over the adjoining lot. Formerly there was only one officer but now there are three.
