RECREATION IS GREATEST NEED

Highlights of a discussion at a meeting of the Prince Rupert Parent-Teachers' Association on possible community improvements included proposals that theatres should be asked to prourday matinees instead of regular films for adults, that the juvenile section of the public library should be enlarged and supplemented, that children's reading be better supervised and that an effort be made to stimulate community interest in establishing a "Neighborh o o d House" or "Hobby Library" for children living west of McBride st. It was held that supervised recreation was the greatest need of Prince Rupert children.
