OTTAWA, July 15—If necessary, the government would enact a new law to aid in cancer research, Prime Minister Mackenzie King told Parliament yesterday.

Former Y.M.C.A. Man Here Dies

The sad news nas been received at the "Y" that Harvey Orr who was one time supervisor at Seal Cove passed away yesterday in the south. Harvey had been ill previous to coming here and took ill again while here, an illness from which he never recovered. He was a champion runner in als youth on the University of Manitoba team and attended the Olympic games as contestant. Mrs. H. F. Pullen of Prince Rupert is a cousin.

"RUSSIA SONG" COMING HERE

The final picture for Robert Taylor until after the war in which he is serving, "Song of Russia," comes to the Capitol Theatre screen here next Monday and Tuesday. Susan Peters plays the feminine lead with Taylor and other prominent members of the cast are Michael Chekhov, Robert Benchley, Felix Bressart, Darryl Hickman, John Hodiak and Jacqueline White.

In a strong story of the Russia of today, Taylor portrays a young American composer and conductor who makes a goodwill tour of Russia before the outbreak of Russo-German hostilities. He falls in love with a Russian girl. With the invasion of Russia, he is able to observe at first hand that nation's magnificent fight for survival and returns to America to fight as he knows best—with music.

"Song of Russia" is said to be a memorable love story with a background of haunting music.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.
(By Dorothy Garbutt)

I forgot to tell you about Frank Fox our latest Y.M.C.A. recruit. Frank comes from Manitoba where he is principal of the High School in Cartwright. For the past three summers he has gone from one Y.M.C.A. set-up to another filling in while supervisors are on their vacations. It's a very helpful way of filling in one's spare time and we appreciate Frank's stay with us.

We are now getting Eaton's magazine "Contacts" regularly. It is on my desk and anyone wishing to read it can get it there—only please put it back for the next person. It is the Winnipeg store magazine and should be of real interest to quite a few people stationed in Prince Rupert.

We have had so many generous donations of beautiful garden flowers lately that I am afraid I have lost track of the names of the donors. But thanks just the same! It brightens up the hut very much and many are the admiring comments passed upon them.

Everyone up here seems to have gone jig-saw puzzle mad of late. All over the place you see couples bent over and absorbed in matching up the twirlygigs. I've never had the patience for that sort of thing and admire the gifted ones who can do one complete without getting mad and tipping the whole thing on the floor.

I see that Signalman Simpson is back in these parts once again after being away for eight months. He was married up here early last year and now they have a small daughter. Mrs. Simpson and the baby are still down south although he'd like to get them up here with him.

Well the Army Show party is gone now and I'm sure they will have many pleasant memories of their Prince Rupert visit, what with going to Port Edward, on the harbor, on minesweepers and as a really fragrant memory for their souvenirs—a visit to a cannery!
