Canucks In Belgium Are Well Received

WITH THE FIRST CANADIAN ARMY IN FRANCE AND BEL-GIUM, Sept. 28 (P) - The Canadians moved through the coastal area of Belgium so fast that few shots were fired and civilian damage was negligible much to Complete Shows 1:00.

For the Belgians there were no such ravages as they suffered in the First Great War.

Members of the Belgian resistance movement said the Canadians passed through their towns six days before the scheduled de livery from Brussels of arms with which the resistance people had hoped to assist the liberation of the coastal area.

This situation was checked through an intensive immuniza-

ed to show that diptheria is no longer largely a children's dis-
