delivered there and four weeks for laundry. A further boom ject in connection with the civic centre undertaking here.

of President A. S. Nickerson. T.
N. Youngs was winner of the raffle of a war savings certificate for the Queen's Fund. Guests were Lieut. Stewart of the Navy

WAR SERVICE— U.S.O. Has Birthday

American War Service Organization to Have "Open House" Here on Sunday.

The United Services Organization, American counter-part of the National War Services of Canada, will celebrate the third anniversary of its founding on the coming Sunday and, being well established in Prince Rupert, will observe the occasion here with an "Open House" tomorrow afternoon at the local club in the social parlors of First United Church. The United Services Organization has become part of the wartime community at Prince Rupert by reason of such facts as that forty-six percent of the service people who enjoy its facilities for entertainment and auxiliary service are of Allied forces other than Americans and that a considerable number of local people are already actively assisting in carrying on the U.S.O. work here. It has been felt that now is a fitting time to give Prince Rupert people generally the opportunity of seeing what the U.S.O. is doing here and, incidentally, enjoy its hospitality during the call.

The first U.S.O. club was founded three years ago in Alabama. Between then and Pearl Harbor 475 clubs were opened.
Since then, expanding at the rate of 52 new clubs a month, the organization has grown to 3000 clubs. Its activities, notable among which are camp shows, encircle the globe today.

Activities conducted at Prince Rupert are typical of U.S.O. functions. The club, of course, is the central point of service but there is also the bowling alley downtown, shows and dances at the Acropolis post, the canteens with interesting sidelines, the development of radio programs and a musical appreciation group. In the last-mentioned some leading local citizens are co-operating.

Frank Finnerty, local U.S.O. director, is one of the busiest men in Prince Rupert. Miss Eva Lapierre is his able assistant.

Major-General J. P. MacKenzie, inspector-general of the Canadian Army for western Canada, has been here for the past week and will be in Prince Rupert until next week in connection with the carrying out of official duties.
