Juvenile Delinquency...

In Canada, in Britain and in the United States, which they are held. So I hope lors of First United Church. the rise of juvenile delinquency has become very marked during the past few years. With mothers and fathers away at war or working in industrial plants producing war supplies, too many youngsters are being left to look after themselves.

All young people have a tremendous amount of energy to work off. At the same time, they also have weekly 'Y' dance, Empress 'Y', They were received by the dian eager desire to be a part of current activities; they | 8.30 to 11 p.m. are particularly susceptible to the atmosphere of excitement, danger and insecurity of wartime. At the present time, many Canadian communities are endeavouring to channel this energy into some constructive activity so that the future leaders of the Naval Drill Hall also, Empress Dominion will feel that they are making a real contribution to the war effort.

The story of how one British city coped with this problem provides an interesting study of what can invited groups to meet at the 'Y' be accomplished under the most adverse conditions.
