Local Visitors To Vancouver Asked for Blood

Prince Rupert Senior Chamber of Commerce has received a request from the Canadian Red Cross in Vancouver requesting that Prince Rupert visitors to Vancouver call at the blood donor clinic while they are in the southern city and make a contribution. The request was representative of the senior elected to fill the vacancy on the birthday.

SMITHERS GETS ZERO WEATHER

SMITHERS, Dec. 18-For the first time this winter the therboard of commissioners for the mometer dipped below the zero mark on Friday night when it reached 2 below. The weather is clear and bright and is very seasonable and enjoyable for this time of the year. As it is quite usual for the Bulkley Valley to have its coldest weather of the winter between Christmas and New Year and as the nights have the familiar sound of the pump- been getting progressively colder for the past week it would look like it may continue to do so for the next week or 10 days.

SOO-SUD NOTES

A Catholic nun, Sister Mary Catherine of Sault. Ste. Marie, arrived in Toronto recently from China, ending a 10,000 mile trip in a two and a half year flight from the relentless pursuit of the Japanese.

The "wonderful financial position" of Sault Ste. Marie was praised by the Hon. G. H. Dun bar, minister of municipal affairs and provincial secretary, at a dinner in the Sault recently.

At Sudbury, C. V. Gauthier, brakeman of a C.P.R. freight rain was killed instantly when ne fell as he stepped from a moving train at Chelmsford station.
