John Garfield in Starring Role of

An ocean voyage strange nough to merit its own special place among the unusual sea stories, from Moby Dick to Muny on the Bounty, opens a twoday run Wednesday at the Capiol Theatre.

It's Warner Bros.' "Between Two Worlds," the motion picure starring John Garfield, Paul Henried, Sydney Greenstreet and Eleanor Parker.

The story is that of a handl of travellers who find themelves aboard an ocean liner hough no one passenger renembers having boarded the ship. At first they mistakenly assume they are on their way to America, since all had reasons for leaving war-torn Europe. But there are many odd and disturbing little factors about their voyage which defy all reasonable explanation. Despite the submarine menace, they travel with all ship lights on. Outside
