Hold on, Little Fellawe're coming!

Yes, babies have felt the impact of war just like the rest of us. Their big trouble has been the diaper shortage. It's been difficult for them and their Mothers, because our looms were busy making hundreds of vital military

But we're beginning to switch gradually back to some civilian production, and diaper cloth is high on our list of urgently needed goods: No the stores will not be bulging with diapers next week-that won't happen till the war's all over. And you have to remember that as we produce more there will likely be a let-up in importations. The general supply picture will only change slightly. But more of those long-time favourite Canadian-made goods will be available.

Urges Publicity

LONDON, March 9. 0 -- Press advertising is essential to build D - Dock Employees' Dance, a "friendly and sympathetic attitude to the church" on the part of the people, says Rev. F. Howell Everson, advocating an advertising campaign as "the product of a united Christian enterprise."

People recognize the need of armal pep, vim, vigor, vitality after 30, 40, or 30, 40 picious of the society which is its guardian and exponent, he said. If they would not take heed of the church pulpit "then the church should use the pulpit which every man must use every day-the pulpit of the press."
