LIGHTNING FATAL

GALWAY, Eire (CP)—Two young men and two young women were killed instantly and another girl was burned about the arms and legs when struck by lightning as they were sheltering beside a turf tank at Gortacornan, near Gort.

Local Boy Home From Overseas

Cpl. Harold Helgerson, R.C.A.F., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Helgerson, 425 Dunsmuir St., arrived in Rupert last night from overseas.

Cpl. Helgerson enlisted in the R.C.A.F. in August 1941, proceeding overseas in December 1942, where he has since served with the "Swordfish" and "Lion" squadrons.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.
(By Dorothy Garbutt)

My ghost writer, the mysterious O.N., has again furnished me with some highly interesting information about one of the sergeants stationed here. He writes:

"It was at Cambrai on the 28th September, 1918, during a heavy artillery bombardment and an allied offensive that a Canadian soldier distinguished himself on the battlefield, was mentioned in despatches and later awarded the Military Medal. At the outbreak of World War II. he was already in uniform and serving with the R.C.A.S.C. at Work Point barracks. Today he is the senior staff sergeant in Pacific Command and stationed at Prince Rupert, in charge of the RCASC supply depot. It is none other than Staff Sergeant Harry A. Rogers of Victoria, and one of the best known senior N.C.O's. He will shortly be eligible for the Long Service Efficiency Decoration, raving enlisted in 1914 with the 2nd C.M.R.s. Major General G. R. Pearkes, now G.O.C. of Pacific Command, enlisted in the same company, having before that been associated with Sgt. Rogers in the Mounted Police in the Yukon Territory.

"Mrs. Rogers recently arrived from Victoria to join her husband here. Their son is back east qualifying as a pilot officer and their daughter Muriel is with the WRCNS in Halifax as Assistant Supply Accountant. Mrs. Rogers was an active worker in the R.C.A.S.C. Ladies' Auxiliary in Victoria. We salute the Rogers family of Victoria."

Born to Leading Seaman and Mrs. James "Jimmie" Billinger on Sunday morning, July 16, a baby daughter "Sharon." Sharon is sister to two-year-old Sheila who is very excited, if somewhat surprised, over her new baby sister. Congratulations Jimmie and Mrs. Jimmie!

LIVERPOOL "MOONLIGHT"

LIVERPOOL, Eng. (CP)— Blackout regulations were lifted for the first time during the war here and over an area of three miles when the city's new "moonlight" system was officially tested. The lights are the brightest in Britain, 100 times stronger than the "starlight" system generally used.

"Meet the People," With Lucille Ball and Dick Powell, Coming to Capitol Theatre

Lucille Ball and Dick Powell share stellar honors in the new musical picture, "Meet the People," coming this Wednesday and Thursday to the Capitol Theatre. It is based on a successful stage revue of the same name and the plot revolves around present day life among war workers in a busy shipyard.

Miss Ball plays the part of an actress who goes to a shipyard to sell a date to the shipyard workers who buys the most bonds. Dick Powell is the lucky man. He has written a play in which Miss Ball becomes interested. The play is accepted for Broadway production but Powell objects to the meaning being distorted and withdraws it. At his challenge, Lucille follows him to a shipyard and obtains work. The romance grows but a quarrel arises. This is finally settled to the satisfaction of all with the production of the play in the shipyard.

The cast also includes Rags Ragland, Virginia O'Brien, Paul Regan, Bert Lahr and June Allyson.

There are a number of musical novelties.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

A new order of the Department of Fisheries banning seining for dogfish after December 15 of this year which it was at first thought applied only to water of the Gulf of Georgia involves the entire coast, it has now been learned. As a result, some indignation is being expressed in this district where only recently seigning for this variety has been developing with some measure of success. Cod fishermen on the southern coast have objected for some time at dogfish seining, claiming that cod as well as dogfish are taken. However, codfishing has never been very lucrative or generally engaged in out of Prince Rupert and some objection at the order permanently banning seining for the dogfish is becoming manifest. Steps are already being taken to appeal to the authorities. Up to now there has been an annual close season on dogfish seining between December 16 and March 15.

Incoming packers report coho commencing to show up in fair numbers with an improvement in fishing particularly around Dundas Island. Weather during the past week has been quite unfavorable for trolling and has been a factor in limiting catches.
