Musical Stars Old Timers of Show Business

Romance, comedy and drama form the triple theme of "Show Business," Eddie Cantor's sparkling new filmusical which with its array of stars tells a gay story of the American theatre. It is the Capitol Theatre's of-

Joan Davis, Nancy Kelly and Constance Moore have the stellar roles in the tuneful picture, which, along with its intriguing action, features eight nostalgic old song favorites and a catchy new melody.

from the East Side who makes his stage debut at an old Bowery theatre, and Murphy is cast as a successful burlesque actor who encourages the boy and subsequently teams with him in vaudeville act. Later the pair join forces with Miss Davis and Miss Moore to make a foursome that climbs to fame and fortune

Cantor and Miss Davis, and a serious one between Murphy and Miss Moore, complicated by the activities of a rival actress and of a theatrical agent, motivate much of the story. Glimpses of memorable scenes from various hit shows of the period and scores of novelty numbers and spectacular effects add to the film's entertainment qualities.
