Halibut Landings For Week 806,300 Pounds—Portlock and Lois N. Have Largest Catches

The halibut fleet got into its stride last week and kept fish buyers busy handling 806,300 pounds of fish which they unloaded from 45 boats in the seven-day period. Last Saturday was the heaviest day when 13 boats brought in 303,500 pounds. Total weight of fish landed in this port from the season's start up to last Friday was 1,368,800 pounds. Of last week's catch 742,300 pounds was from Canadian boats and 64,000 from American. Although the American total was small compared with that landed by the Rupert fleet, an American boat had the distinction of bringing in the largest single haul to date. Friday the Portlock brought in 50,000 pounds which was sold to Storage at the established price of 15c and 13½. Largest haul by a Canadian boat was 43,000 pounds brought in by the Lois N, on Wednesday. The Pierce, which unloaded last Saturday, and the Portlock were the only American boats to arrive last week. Prices paid for Canadian fish were 18¼c and 16½.

The records of the International Fisheries Commission show that for the period from April 16 to May 31, 1944, the following total amounts of halibut have been landed in Pacific Coast ports from Areas 2 and 3:

	Area 2
U.S. Fleet	797,842
Canadian Fleet	691,260
Total	1,489,102

The above figures are preliminary and subject to amendment. The landings were made chiefly on the last few days of May due to the delayed departure of all fleets during ceiling price negotiations. They are not comparable with the following 1943 landings, which commenced in volume more than a month earlier.

In 1943, landings from April 16 to May 31 amounted to:

	Area 2	Area 3
Canadian Fleet	6,435,066	85,812
U.S. Fleet	7,247,194	5,743,325
Total	13,682,260	5,829,137

No change is reported to have resulted from negotiations between salmon fishermen's organizations and the government in the matter of establishing prices for sockeye this season. It is understood that the Wartime Prices and Trade Board agency and the canners are in agreement that the price level should remain the same as last year but that the fishermen want it hoisted to meet their claim of higher operating costs. The season is due to open June 26.

NEW CHILD STAR HERE

Little Margaret in "Lost Angel" at Capitol Theatre

A tender and human comedy, full of laughter and just a few tears is playing at the Capitol Theatre this Monday and Tuesday. It is M.G.M.'s "Lost Angel," starring Margaret O'Brien, the wonder child who will be remembered by moviegoers for her poignant portrayal of the title role in "Journey for Margaret."

This time Margaret stars in a comedy about a child who is raised as a prodigy by a group of professors and thinks she is happy until an irresponsible reporter, played by James Craig, enters her tiny sphere and captures her imagination with a promise to show her magic. The result is an evening's fun for all when the super intellectual child sets out and challenges him for proof. And when circumstances force Craig to keep the child for a few days events begin to pop. Craig learns a valuable lesson which enables him to find happiness with his torch singer sweetheart, played by Marsha Hunt, and the young genius becomes a normal, healthy, happy child, aware of all the wonders of childhood.

Keenan Wynn makes his delineation of Packy, the befuddled racketeer, a comic characterization. Others in the cast as well-meaning professors are Philip Merivale, Donald Meek, Henry O'Neil and Sara Haden.
