FOR THAT Morning Freshness...

Try this at bedtime tonight

Put an end to those restless, uneasy nights when sleep. comes slowly or is light and unrefreshing.

Try taking a cup of warm Ovaltine at bedtime. It helps to relieve that feeling of nervous tension.

Its special food elements, processed for easy digestion, and its rich supply of Vitamins. A. B1 and D and the minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron, help to replenish worn out muscle, nerve and body cells. You'll find Ovaltine an aid to sound, refreshing sleep. See if you don't wake up fresher and more buoyant. Get Ovaltine at your drug or food store.

TRANS-CANADA'S Wings are Spreading

In 1943 T.C.A. carried:

141,000 passengers; average length of passenger journey, 570 miles. 3,900,000 pounds of air mail, approximately 156 million letters.

840,000 pounds of air express, approximately 58,000 shipments.

For information, reservations, etc. Consult your nearest T.C.A. Traffic Office or any C.N.R. passenger representative.

T.C.A. links Ocean to Ocean, City to City and Nation to Nation. Its daily flights with men, mails and materials are the equivalent of once around the world at the Equator.

Members of Canada's armed forces serving overseas, and in all the outlying territories, are brought nearer home by Trans-Canada Air Lines. To carry mail to and from our forces in Europe, to transport men on technical and military missions, the Canadian Government has established a trans-Atlantic air service operated by T.C.A.-a service made possible through T.C.A.'s established facilities and pioneering work.

T.C.A. is an indispensable part of the . Canada of today, and tomorrow it will carry her flag much farther afield. Its Passenger, Mail and Express services speed your war effort.

emergency functions that a trained A.R.P. personnel, such as Prince Rupert has developed, might well be prepared to exercise. To keep the organization in existence and oiled to function would appear to be most advisable. Possibly General Ross' visit and suggestions he may have to offer may result in a revival of A.R.P. enthusiasm here. However, some actual need for it must be apparent if that interest is to be maintained. That need may well exist.
