C.C.F. "Prostituting" Labor . . .

Our friends of the C.C.F. have resented comments which have been made by the terrible capitalistic press about the repudiation of socialism by their party in Saskatchewan and the supposed saw-off with the Fascist-inclined Bloc Populaire in Quebec. It is, therefore, interesting to note the blast against the C.C.F. which has come out in a political action supplement which is being distributed with the current issue of "The Main Deck," official publication of the Shipyard General Workers' Federation of British Columbia. Alongside this latest attack upon the C.C.F. from a Labor publication, the comments of the "capitalistic" press in regard to the recent political antics of the C.C.F. appear mild indeed. The C.C.F. is charged right out with prostituting the cause of Canadian labor.

After impressing the necessity of all elements in Canada concentrating upon the war effort to cleanse the world of Nazi Fascism, the supplement to "Main Deck" says that the Progressive-Conservative-Bloc Populaire tie-up in Quebec "is like a dagger pressed against the heart of our nation." "This Fascist Bloc constitutes the gravest threat in Canada today. When we read that one of the outstanding spokesman for that group, Henri Bourassa, tells his followers to vote C.C.F. in those ridings where there is no Bloc candidate it is time for all of us to sit up and take notice. Obviously, irrespective of what the C.C.F. may say about the matter, Bourassa regards the C.C.F. as the political ally of all those anti-war, anti-national unit, pro-Fascist forces which he represents."

The "Main Deck" article, which has the by-line of Gary Culhane, goes on as follows:

"While paying lip service to support of the war. the C.C.F. has voted against the war budgets and advanced policies in the labor movement, which are injurious to the war effort.

"'Within Quebec itself, where a life and death struggle is in progress against Fascism, where Canadian Democracy is undergoing the acid test, there can be only one course for honest, right-thinking Canadians. That is, to drop all sectional differences and support the Godbout Liberal Government which represents the only practical hope for defeating Quebec's Fascism.

"For us outside Quebec, it is important that we realize the growing strength of the staunch democratic and progressive forces amongst the French Canadian people. We must seek to ally ourselves with them and give them every possible support in their struggle for the extension of Canadian democracy.

"The world has learned that only thoroughgoing, open-eyed unity of all democratic forces can defeat Fascism. Yet, in this crucial struggle, the C.C.F. is frankly proclaiming that it can win nothing itself, has come out in a campaign for the defeat of the Godbout Government. Which means, in effect, aiding and abetting the Fascists and helping them to power.

"Canadian labor must separate itself from this utterly un-principled, irresponsible and cynical policy of the C.C.F. To remain silent in the face of these developments is to assist in the lynching of our Canadian democracy. To remain silent while a Party. which proclaims itself "the political arm of labor," assists in emasculating the democratic forces within Quebec, is to betray our brother trade unionists and all the progressive forces in that province, who even now are in a front line struggle for survival.

"At the very moment when our boys are going over the top, the C.C.F. publication, the Canadian Forum, breaks into print with the following statements: 'The outstanding characteristic of this war is its reactionary character.' And also: 'By contrast, World War I was inspiring and revolutionary.'

"Further in this same article we are warned against a United Nations victory in this war. We are told: 'The signs are more and more ominous of what a United Nations victory protends.'

"When we read of these statements, and when we also see the C.C.F. betrayal of the best interests of the Canadian people in Quebec, that testing ground of political honesty, we must realize that it is more than about time for us to repudiate in unmistakable terms the Party which is prostituting the cause of Canadian labor."

ACADEMY RECITALS

Pupils are Heard at Convent Thursday and Friday Nights

On Wednesday and Thursday evenings the music pupils of St. Joseph's Academy were heard in their annual recital. Bouquets of bright flowers made a beautiful setting and the finish and assurance with which each pupil from the tiniest to the more advanced rendered their numbers was a source of enjoyment and satisfaction to both parents and teachers.

Certificates from the Toronto Conservatory of Music were presented by Rev. N. Racette O. M. I., who congratulated the students on their splendid performance, also pointing out the sacrifice entailed by the parents in giving them a musical education. Finally, he encouraged them to continue in using their God-given talents to bring happiness and joy to others.

Those taking part were:

V. Tattersall, O. Zabudney, P. Large, I. Webster, M. Holtby, V. M. Prendergast, B. DeJong, M. Adcock, D. Kergin, G. McRae J. Rochester, J. Moore, O. Strand, H. Brewer, Iollanda Bellicini, J. Larsen, D. Laird, B. Moore, M. Shenton, J. Shelton, G. Lien, S. Sorensen, M. Brechin J. Adcock, D. Prendergast, K. Toombs, Y. Eyford, D. Large, L. Amadio, G. Gillis, A. Dumas, E. Moore, H. Moran, T. Braun, A. Forman, J. Langridge, J. Taylor.

Teachers and Pupils Honor Miss M. MacKay

Retiring from Duties at Borden Street School, Where She Has Taught for Last 20 Years

Honoring the 20 years service of Miss K. MacKay as a teacher on the staff of the Borden Street School, her pupils and colleagues —one of whom was a former pupil—took the opportunity afforded by the school term closing exercises on Friday morning to present her with gifts and felicitations and express their regrets that she is retiring from her position.

All of Miss MacKay's 20 years of teaching at the Borden Street School have been spent as Grade Three teacher and an interesting note was sounded when, on behalf of the Borden Street staff Miss Dorothy O'Neill, a former Grade Three pupil of Miss MacKay and now one of her colleagues, made presentation of a wrist watch.

In the main school hall, packed with 230 children and a number of staff members and other friends, Barbara Ann Carter, a pupil of this year's Grade Three class, presented Miss MacKay with a bgautiful china tea service, six silver spoons, and an alubum bearing the autographs of 200 of the school's pupils. The articles were purchased through contributions by all the Borden Street pupils and Barbara was selected by them to make the presentation to Miss MacKay.

On behalf of the Prince Rupert and District Teachers' Association Miss May Jones of the High School staff presented their veteran associate with a decorative cut glass flower vase.

Attending the presentation and the closing exercises were S. A. Cheeseman, principal of Borden Street School, John S. Wilson, former principal, now on leave to do war work, and Mrs. J. A. Rutherford, school board secretary, and a former colleague of Miss MacKay.

Inb rief speeches Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Rutherford spoke stirringly of the wonderful work done by Miss MacKay in her teaching career.

"She has left her sterling mark on the hearts of hundreds of children," Mr. Wilson said.

Miss MacKay, whose retirement is effective at the end of the present term, will leave for Vancouver, where she will take up residence, next week.

SIGNALS IN CUP FINAL

Defeated Reserves Last Night and Will Play Navy

Access to the Dominion Day Cup final was gained by Signals who won the semi-final round by defeating Reserves 3 to 0 in a soccer game on Acropolis Hill last night. The winners will meet Navy for the trophy.

The teams were both scoreless in the initial half although Signals were awarded a penalty kick. The second half had just started when Kuhn scored suddenly to put the Sigs one goal ahead.

Nine minutes later McLean made it 2 to 0 when he tallied after kicking from an awkward angle at the goal. Gomez broke though for the winners' third counter three minutes before the engagement ended.

Line-ups:

Signals— Peters, Anger, Carson, Yelland, Hilder, Kuhn, Johnson, Thomas, McLean, Gomez, Simpson.

Reserves — Krause, Parsons, Ronald, Wilson, Evans, Davies, Parkhouse, Rivers, Judge, McCulloch, Pavlikis.

SOFTBALL TEAM IS IN BALANCE

Fate of the Reserve Army softball team in the Service Softball League hangs in the balance today following their inability to field a club to play against Port Edward last night. The Reserve squad has been short of players recently and may not be able to carry on.

PLASTIC TOOTHPASTE TUBES

WILMINGTON, Del., June 24 (AP)—Collapsible tubes for certain types of toothpaste containers, waterproof coatings, piping, adhesives and insulation for electric wiring and cables can all be made from polythene, a new plastic, claims the Cu Pont company. It is produced from the ethylene derived from coal gas or petroleum.

Were Wed In Vancouver

An interesting wedding took place in Vancouver on June 16 when Miss Nellie Reicheld of Prince Rupert became the bride of William Weiss, also of this city, at a quiet ceremony at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Anne Waring.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are formerly of Edmonton.

Following the ceremony the happy couple left for a short honeymoon in Victoria. They arrived back in Prince Rupert on Friday.

Mr. Weiss is employed at the dry dock.
