LITTLE MEANS MUCH

Those persons in Prince Rupert who individually attend to the smoking requirements of our soldiers overseas or do so as members of an organization such as the Women's Auxiliary, Coast Regiment, may rest assured their contribution is well received.

Letters of thanks from our fighting men are more than fitting reward. For so little our men are so grateful. Because of this we should all redouble our efforts along in this regard.

The following excerpt from a B.C. soldier's letter, in which he gives thanks for smokes, should be enough to loosen the purse strings of the most cau- c. stuart, regent of Queen Mary tious contributor:

"These days we all find a good smoke is a great school children of Prince Ruprelief (in spite of what the doctors say). But decent ert. cigarettes are not to be bought in England at less than two shillings and six pence for 20, and here Mrs. Pinninger, Mrs. C. Taylor, (France) they can't be bought at any price. We all Mrs. S. V. Cox, Mrs. Applewaite, depend, therefore, on the parcels and shipments Beshka Penoff, Betty Wide, Marwhich arrive from home."

PLATFORM FOR CANADA

A platform for Canada is advocated by The Fi- J. Boddie, Mrs. W. W. Wrathall. nancial Post and is worthy of deep study. It is:

1-All manpower and resources, efficiently used, wherever need, to win the war.

2—Pay-as-we-go policy, to the utmost possible Soldiers' Sport limit, to avert inflation.

3—Elimination of wasteful spending by public Meets Planned bodies or private individuals.

Terrace Camp Instructive, Entertaining

(Special to Daily News) TERRACE-Fourteen boys enjoyed the pleasures and benefits of supervised outdoor life at a camp held by the Boys' Group of Knox United Church, Terrace, at Lakelse Lake. Supervised by T. C. Colwell, church pastor, with the valued help of Sgt. Ed Earl, assistant leader, the camp offered bathing, boating, fishing, and outdoor games. Meals were prepared out of doors.

Two boys learned to swim and dive and a third made a start at swimming during the week.

Religious instruction, general deportment, and camp tidiness were emphasized. One of the features of the camp was a quiet time and story hour in the eve-

Jerald Toop and Ronnie Paulsen won high honors as entertainers and Ronnie carried home the belt for winning the highest marks during the field day.

Other prizes went to Leslie York, Roy Thomas, Charlie De Kergameaux, Alvin Bernhardt, Jerald Toop, Berhard De Kergameaux, Dennis De Kergameaux and Tommy Bruncom. At the close of the wook the campers offered a prayer of thanks and cheered their leader Thanks were also given to Mr. Brooks for supplying transporation. Mr. Nash for the use of the hotel, to the merchants of Terrace for donating prizes, to the army for adding to the comfort of the camp, to " Y.M.C.A. for athletic equisment, and to the families of the boys, who supplied extra delicacies.
