A.Y.P.A. HOLDS Plan Luncheon, Dinner Here for U.S. Ambassador

If residents of Alfred st. and vicinity were curious as to the cause of all the laughing and singing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod McRae Wednesday evening, it was caused by 28 members of St. Andrew's A.Y.P.A. having an enjoyable house party.

Walt Chapman of the R.C.A.F. and Bill Squires of the Soo Suds kept things going with such games as "Blind man's buff," "It," "Musical Spoons," and several contests of skill.

Cameraman Bill Cornell of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps was present with his familiar "Smile for the birdie, please."

Plans were made to hold a dance in the church hall, Fourth ave. W., next Monday. A social is held in the church every Sunday evening following the service.

At the conclusion of the party, refreshments were served by Miss Mona McRae, assisted by the Misses Jean Smith, Audrey Sessions, and Faith King. Ted Lockett of the R.C.A.F. and Sam Wilson, of the Navy, were acclaimed pearl diving heroes.

Tentative plans for the observation of the Prince Rupert visit on August 17 of Ray Atherton, United States Ambassador to Canada, include a luncheon by the Canadian services in the Navy drill hall at 12:30 noon, and a reception and dinner by United States officers in the Officers' Club at 6:30 p.m. Guest lists have not yet been announced.

The activities of the ambassador, who will arrive here with his wife and two children at 10 a.m., are expected to include a visit to civic officials at the city hall at 11:45. At 2 o'clock there is expected to be a parade and inspection of troops in front of the Federal Building.

It is believed that Mayor Daggett will declare a half holiday.
