Brisk Musical In Technicolor

A gay musical, photographed in technicolor, an appealing love story of an Army private in love with the Colonel's daughter, topped off with a great display of screen stars, make "Thousands Cheer," coming this week to the Capitol Theatre, one of the must-sees of the year.

Kathryn Grayson is seen as a charming young concert singer who leaves her job as soloist with Jose Iturbi's orchestra to do morale work at her father's camp. John Boles does credit to the role of Colonel Jones as the bewildered father suddenly meeting with a charming grown-up daughter. Many of his difficulties stem from the fact that Gene Kelly, the camp's problem boy solves his difficulties when he and Kathryn fall in love much to the despair of Boles and mother, Mary Astor.

N. M. McLean Buried Today

Friends of the late N. M. McLean, who passed away on Saturday, gathered at 2 o'clock this afternoon to pay their final respects at funeral services held at St. Peter's Parish Hall, Seal Cove. Rev. Canon W. F. Rushbrook officiated.

Decorated with flowers, the hall was filled with friends accumulated through his long residence in the city and who sang the hymns "Abide With Me" and "Rock of Ages." Mrs. C. J. Norrington presided at the organ.

Interment was made in the family plot in Fairview cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers were R. M. Winslow, Robert Boddie, Henry Skinner, William Skinner, Chris Dixon and Peter McCormack.

Active pallbearers were Reginald Sinclair, J. E. Boddie, Harry Love, Reginald Green, John Walker and George Holmes.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.
(By Dorothy Garbutt)

Now that the robot bombers are over Britain and once again children are being hurriedly packed off to the country and terror stalks the skies let us remember the children of the war. Dorothy Bathurst has written a moving poem in that interesting digest magazine named "Britain" which she calls . . .

When Sangs Are Gold Again

Let us think of our children,
The children of England
Forgetting the ways of peace—
Born to the drone of the Hun
in the sky
To the crump of bombs
And the warning cry
To the clatter of shrapnel
In the street
And the solemn rhythm
Of marching feet.
It was different
When we were seven years old
The sky was clear
And the sand was gold—
Made to build castles in
Not to store
With shovel and pump
By the attic door.
The world was at peace then,
And will be again,
But howe can we tell them,
How explain
This hoped-for peace
To a child of war
Who has never seen street lamps
Or lighted stores
Or bananas
Or grapefruit
Or tangerines
Or chocolate crackers
Or pink ice-creams.
We gave a sea shell
To a little boy
He shook his head in wonder—
"Shells come out of guns"
He says
What can we answer?

In these new days of evil my little friends in England, I remember you and pray for you—little Norman Smith of Stanmore, son of my neighbor's Bunty and Dick and the Sanguine twins of my own street in Harrow Weald who remember only war; Kathie Bailey, who lived across the street and John Smith, brother of Norman who learned to walk while war began, Joyce Swallow and Jean Bailey who in their first teens remember but faintly lights and windows warmly glowing and Georgie Lester my own boys chum who went to Fourth Harrow Weald Scouts troop with him and recalls so much but does not talk of it. May the Lord bless you and keep you—may the Lord make His face to shine upon you, and give you peace.

Wrens in Canada have appeared officially in bell-bottom trousers on signal towers at east and west coast ports.

The first person on record to wear a diamond as a jewel was Aaron (Book of Exodus: 28:17, 18).

Canada has trained more than 100,000 air crew members under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

Straight pins were banned use by the American War partment to save steel.
