Choir Concert Well Received Second Night

The concert of the Prince Rupert Dry Dock and Shipyard Male Choir was repeated before a larger audience at First Presbyterian Church last night and the entertainment was, if anything, even smoother than on the opening night. The listeners were again very appreciative. The presentation was made to Miss Margaret Johnson, cellist in the instrumental trio and only lady to take part in the program, of a box of chocolates. After the concert, there was

Opera Star Sings in Silence

LONDON, May 17 (P)—Marie Nemi, a Hungarian opera singer, contralto who is becoming very popular in London, said in an interview that she practises singing in silence. When she is learning a new aria, she sings it through for the first time with the piano. Then she sings it over and over in her mind for a week before she sings it aloud again.

A social gathering in the church parlors where refreshments were served with wives and friends of the participants in the program as guests.

FARMERS NEED HELP!

Canadian farmers for five years have responded splendidly to Canada's urgent need of food.

This year the need is greater—and workers available on the farms are even fewer.

City, town and village folk must help the farmer to give us the food we need.

- For our Armed Services—
- For our home population—
- For the United Nations—
- For rescued peoples.

If you can spare your holidays, or odd days, or even half days to assist farmers, don't fail to do so this year.

If you can take steady work on a farm, by all means do so.

Your services in the farming industry are this year vitally necessary to victory.
