The Daily News

PRINCE RUPERT . . . BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Published Every Afternoon Except Sunday by Prince Rupert Daily News Limited. Third Avenue

SUBSCRIPTION RATES By City Carrier, per week Per Month Per Year By Mail, per month G. A. HUNTER Managing Editor Per Year

DAILY EDITION . . . Thursday, November 16, 1944

Housing Is Important . . .

Because housing has so great influence on the social and economic life of every community, it is regrettable that no satisfactory solution of its prob- act makes it very clear that his lems should have emerged in the long march of civi- action is detrimental to Canlization, says the current issue of The Royal Bank of ada's war effort and therefore Canada Monthly Letter. However, a list of the dif- detrimental to the cause of the ficult questions wrapped up in the task of providing The timing of his act would suitable dwellings makes clear that there can be no indicate a preconceived plot, not simple formula.

Canada has too few houses, and many of those in existance are not suitable to meet the expanding plot involving far greater issues. standards of the people. While European countries generally approve two persons per room, the Canadian census indicates one room per person as the by all nations for the sacri- est support. dividing line between comfortable living and crowding. Judged by this test, there was some overcrowding in Canada even in 1941, with 150,000 households, including a million people, having less than one room per person. In all the building that will have to be done to power. meet immediate needs and keep up the supply of Canada holds third place and his reactionary and op- lived up to their obligation. The houses, private enterprise must be encouraged to among the great nations as a portunistic supporters. take the largest possible share of responsibility, source of war material supply. The leaders of the United Na- friend of democracy and an training and voluntary overseas while governments of all levels play their parts in tions look to Canada's volun- avowed believer in freedom went service. Canada's fighting men a housing program particularly designed to meet tary contribution of the vast abroad to lend his counsel and and canada's people have lived! the needs of the lower income classes. There is ample resources of her mines, forests, to do his part to bring peace up to that principle. room for both. Private enterprise will probably find dustrial output to continue their brought with him plans designed eral service and home defence its greatest opportunity in large-scale projects which give scope for economical construction and maintenance. It should be possible, with these economies emy. and through improved construction methods, to extend the housing provided by private enterprise place as a source of supply. ly entrenched and aligned post and is preparing to lead downward to take in many groups for whom it is not feasible to provide by present methods, though there will always be some in the community unable by any means to provide for their own housing needs.

Clearing the Seas . . .

peanut butter.

Chief reason for many of the controls over goods the Canadian people, made The people of the world look to in short supply in Canada is the war.

In the earlier years of the conflict, when the total war effort against Fascism who live in this great Dominion Axis powers held the iniative, sources of supply for and to U.N.R.A., is being assail of Canada to declare as one man many commodities were cut off. Now that the tide of Victory is flowing for the Allied cause many of of Canadian workers. these supply channels have been reopened.

For instance, the success of the British navy in sweeping the Mediterranean has provided a supply strengthen the morale of Canof dates from Iraq, formerly known as Mesopotamia. ada's enemies on the battle-Canada has been allocated 4,000 tons of dates from fronts of the world.

this country and they will arrive during this winter. Almonds and filberts from Spain and Portugal may also come to Canada.

It is a long, long haul from the West Coast of not centre around a difference Africa to the Dominion but as the seas were cleared of opinion on the handling of of enemy submarines and surface raiders, more shipping became available and 20,000,000 pounds of Nigerian peanuts were obtained for processing into time at which the issue was

The Allied drive in the Pacific has also cleared trade routes and Canada is to receive 18,000 tons of the United Nations was in the raisins and currants from Australia. This is the same amount as last year. Some of the raisins are arriving in time for the Christmas trade.

3 MEALS A DAY - OVALTINE NIGHT AND MORNING

Get Ovaltine today at your drug or food store. Calcium in 21/2 oz.

THE PROTECTING FOOD-DRINK

MUSSALLEM'S ECONOMY STORE

Cheddar Cheese

*Made as directed

"WHERE DOLLARS HAVE MORE CENTS"

We have a complete variety of available

Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables Tobaccos and Confectionery

FREE DELIVERY throughout the City three times weekly (Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays)

Opposite Canadian Legion

LETTERBOX

SUPPORTS GOVERNMENT

Editor, Daily News:

Col. Ralston has quit the cabinet of His Majesty's Canadian Government! Col. Ralston has $4.00 desterted his post in war time! By this act Col. Ralston has struck the first blow to be struck at the unity of Canada and the United Nations.

> The speed with which the reactionary and opportunistic elements all over the country have aligned themselves with Col. Ralston bears out this contention.

The pretext Col. Ralston uses as an excuse for his abortive an issue involving a few thousand home defence troops but a honored and revered by all nations. Homage has been paid struggle against what is yet a to make future wars impossible. forces alike—are first class freeformidable and dangerous en- He returned to his home land dom-loving warriors. There are country cannot play this role if to do good, and a great man tments of the Canadian people. her people are disunited. The died of a broken heart. And against the will of every government that made these But hope is born again in the decent Canadian citizen. committments in the name of minds of freedom-loving people! On Guard Canada, On Guard! adian unity, the bitterest foes tions' cause. Cry out for unity! more than 13,000 people in the

The fall of this government

That this issue which Col. Ralston chooses to raise at this time is not a domestic issue is clearly seen. That the issue does a minor problem is also clear. "sprung" on an unsuspecting

One of the great powers of midst of a general election and Canada was in the midst of a campaign to raise the largest loan ever raised in her history. The results of both campaigns show that the majority of the people in both countries are wholeheartedly in support of their respective governments and the great cause to which their governments have pledged full-

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA IN PROBATE IN THE MATTER OF THE "ADMINISTRATION ACT"

THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF MARTIN JOSEPH GILLIS, DECEASED

TAKE NOTICE that by order of His Honour, W. E. Fisher, made on the 13th day of November, A.D. 1944, I was appointed Administrator (with Will annexed) of the Estate of Martin Joseph Gillis. deceased, and all parties having claims against the said estate are hereby required to furnish same, properly verified, to me on or before the 14th day of December, A.D. 1944, and all parties indebted to the Estate are required to pay the amount of their indebtedness to me forthwith. DATED at Prince Rupert, B.C. this 14th day of November, A.D.

NORMAN A. WATT, Official Administrator, Prince Rupert, B.C.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA IN THE MATTER OF THE "AD-MINISTRATION ACT"

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ARTHUR ALEXANDER McEWEN, DECEASED, INTESTATE TAKE NOTICE that by Order of His Honor Judge Fisher, Local Judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, I was on the 3rd day of November, A.D. 1944 appointed Administrator of the estate of Arthur Alexander McEwen, who died on the 22nd day of September, 1944. All persons indebted to the said estate are required to pay the amount of their indebtedness to me forthwith and all persons having claims against the said Estate are required to file them with me properly verified on or before the 15th day of December, 1944, failing which distribution will be made having regard only to such claims of which I shall have been notified.

Dated at Prince Rupert, B.C., this 4th day of November, A.D. 1944. NORMAN A. WATT. Official Administrator, Prince Rupert, B.C.

"What 'reserved' sign?"

Canada, whose total population the Republicans in the U.S. Nations. does not exceed twelve million Congress toward the end of The workers of Canada have with high hopes only to find no "Zombies." There is not This is Canada's role. Can- his enemies and every reaction- such a thing.

these committments, to the the United Nations. It is for us ed by the bitterest foes of Can- our faith in the United Na-fices Canada's sons have so The historic parallel of Col. people: Guard that freedom along co-operative lines had readily made to the cause of Ralston's abortive attack on the earnestly and strike without come into being in Rochdale, Freedom. The leaders of the forces of unity can be found mercy at the enemies of unity. England. United Nations do not look to when we compare the action of at the enemies of the United Four Types people of Canada endorsed the adians are proud of Canada's ary in his beloved land firm- Col. Ralston has deserted his They are proud of Canada's against him. His high hopes his reactionary and opportunvoluntary contribution to the and the hope for future world istic followers against the unity cause of the United Nations. peace were destroyed and the of Canada-against the United Canadians realize that their world lost a great opportunity Nations-against the commit-

> A. GILLANDERS, 1461 Piggott Place.

FATAL TO MANY Appendicitis proves fatal to Canada is a nation of self- United States every year. would mean the repudiation of

Furniture - Lamps

HARDWARE

OCCASIONAL CHAIRS

FEDERAL BLOCK - THIRD AVENUE

the disposal and exchange of products. Then there was also international co-operative was a shingle mill at Fanny Bay, Vancouver Island.

goods along wholesale lines.

Mr. Melvin spoke of provin-

CO-OPERATIVE

(Continued from Page

tive oil wells in the United States with a $5,000,000 refinery in Kansas. The bulk of the livestock in Alberta was being moved by co-operatives, the business amounting to $23,600,-

Governmental co - operation had been obtained in connection with co-operative educational activity.

The co-operative movement was just approaching its 100th anniversary, Mr. Melvin said. It was on December 21 that the reliant people-self-reliant free first successful movement of Activities

-were briefly explained. Chief Armour and Chester Lemaistre. est.

principles of co-operative wer that every person who belonged to a co-operative had the right to vote, the rate of interest on share capital was limited to six percent (in Prince Rupert there was no interest paid on share capital), continuous expansion and continuous education.

co-operative problems. There wharf for experimental was the problem of obtaining The provincial governmental gove In British Columbia a wholesale society had just been started. It was operating as a the federal government had agreed to co-operative by includ- dustry and provided the brokerage in the meantime but later it was hoped to have a ing co-operative training in its warehouse and actually handle rehabilitation instruction courses. Then there was the problem of educating the mem: bership itself and here the gov- tain Dahl, and the cree cial co-operative activities for ernments were again assisting. landed at Massett It was Mr. Melvin also spoke of the stood that, on her way he the international co-operative issue of taxation of co-operatives, justifying the present into difficulties off the situation where co-operatives were exempt from income tax which was imposed on private tendance at city school business. The income tax which tober 1924, according to was not imposed on the cooperative organization was in principals of the three fact paid to the government through the individual members who had to pay tax on their FREE TELEGRAMS patronage dividends. If it was CAPE TOWN, 0-15 decided to tax co-operatives, children's free telegram. they could abolish the patronage | 4,192 messages were en in the chair at yesterday's land during the year end luncheon and there was a full 31, 1944. attendance of members with The four types of co-opera- guests in the persons of Norsouls as a reservoir of man- World War I and the present accepted a role to play in Can- tive activity-producer, market- man McCaskel of Vancouver, About 64 percent of the control of the present of the control of the day tactics of the good Colonel ada's war effort. They have ing, consumer and credit unions Allan McDougall, Capt. W. P. area in the Philippi

TWENTY YEAR IN PRINCE RUPER

Mr. Melvin also referred to been auxious to encoudevelopment of the the nominal rental dividend or could reduce prices. between child evacuees in President Frank Skinner was Africa and their parents

Save Food for Fighters! Here are

10 FOOD-SAVING RULES For Wartime

PLAN FOOD BUYING CAREFULLY

COOK FOODS PROPERLY Follow your cook book carefully so as to avoid waste and retain maximum food values. SERVE SMALLER PORTIONS Start a Clean Plate Club in your home! Don't SAVE LEFT-OVERS vegetable remnants for stews, bones for soups, bread-crumbs for stuffings.

SAVE SURPLUS FATS Use what you need in your own cooking. What's left over turn in with your other salvage. DO NOT HOARD Canada has a sufficiency of all the foods you need. Don't hoard or buy foods for the sake of ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SAVE Share with your friends any food saving tips you hear or read. Don't spread gossip about "shortages" or tips that may start runs on unrationed REDUCE YOUR FOOD BILL

Choose economical foods-those with concentrated nutriment. Try to keep down and reduce your Contributed in Support of Canada's Nutrition and Food Conservation Programme by B.C. Sugar Refining Company Limited.

> DOGE:38 B.C. SUGAR

LTHOUGH the war in Europe drawing to a close, this is not for slackening our efforts here home. We should continue economize in every possible way in caring for equipment and uten in collecting salvage, in consen food. In the saving of fats a every housewife can make a to able contribution to the A cause. For fats make glycerine, source of explosives for shells bombs and a base for the marve new sulfa ointments. Reme these three things:

1. Save all the fats you can.

2. Use what you need at home conserve butter and shorten

3. Take surplus fats to your ma dealer and he will turn the over to the Salvage Dep

FREE RECIPE BOOK - Send your name and address to B.C. Sugar Refining Co. Ltd., Vancouver, B. C., for your copy of new Wartime Book of Golden Syrup Recipes.

AVAILABLE IN 2-LB., 5-LB. AND 10-LB. TINS

PLACE AN AD IN THE DAILY NEWS-CIRCULATION COUNTS.