ACROPOLIS NOW LEADS

Defeated City Team Last Night—C.W.A.C.'s Take Allies

Although their opponents led at half-time, Acropolis unleashed a last-quarter scoring spree that carried them to a decisive 42 to 27 victory over the City team in an "A" Basketball League game last night on Acropolis Hill.

In gaining their third straight triumph of the season, the cagers from the hill operated like a track-star who starts at a modest clip then speeds up until he leaves his rivals far behind in a "stretch" spurt.

The winners were trailing 12 to 7 at the end of the first quarter. By half-time they were still behind 16 to 15 and, at the end of the third quarter, they led by only 24 to 20. Paced by Kiener, however, who collected 15 points in the game, the Acropolis five outscored the City 18 to 7 in the last frame.

The lineups follow:

Acropolis — Kiener, 15; Willoughby, 2; Swanson, 8; Homyer, Deiss, Kalinovich, 2; Lis, 2; Wallingford, 4; Garzelloni, 4; Bruegger, 5.

City — Bill, 4; Holkestad, 5; Davis, 4; Fitch, 6; Santurbane, 6; Postuk, Vuchovich, 1; Bussey, 1.

In another "A" League game, the American Officers downed the High School, 45 to 20. Capt. Peek topped the winners in score with 15 points while Lt. Ernst secured 12.

The lineups follow:

Officers — Glasebrook, Bone, 8; Ernst, 12; Hill, 8; Peek, 15; Clausen, Lewin, 2.

High School — Forman, 4; Wesch, Murray, 4; James, 4; Hartway, 1; Thompson, 2; Ciccone, Sheppard, 4; Cruikshank, 1; Good.

Including last night's fixtures, the standing in 'A' League follows:

	W	L	Pts.
Acropolis Hill	3	0	6
Port Edward	2	0	4
Officers	2	1	4
Prince Rupert	1	2	2
Co-ops	0	2	0
High School	0	3	0

C.W.A.C.'s Win Women's Game

The C.W.A.C.'s defeated the Allies, 9 to 3, to chalk up their first win, in a Women's League engagement in which Hill was leading scorer with seven points to her credit.

The lineups follow:

C.W.A.C.'s — Drinkwater, Hill, 7; Molitor, 2; McMullen, Goebel, Bullen.

Allies — Morgan, McCloud, Kluting, 2; Lowe, 1; Sadaway, Conroy.

The Women's League standings follow:

	W	L	Pts.
W.D.'s	2	0	4
C.W.A.C.'s	1	1	2
Mussallems	1	1	2
Allies	0	2	1

The games were slowed up somewhat by wet spots on the floor, where rain-water leaked through the roof. The top of the gym had been slightly damaged by the recent strong wind sweeping this area but a hasty repair job kept the building's court dry enough to play basketball.

Providing steeplechasing resumes this winter—and there is a good chance it will — the youngest jockey ever to win the British Grand National will resume his riding career after an absence from the turf of six years crammed with adventure—and misadventure. In those years Bruce Hobbs, six-foot army captain and the tallest jockey in Britain, has been near death with a broken back; served more than four years with the desert army and in Italy; been wounded and won the Military Cross. It was feared that Bruce never would ride again after he fractured his spine in a fall while riding at Cheltenham in 1939. A year earlier at the age of 17, he piloted the 40-1 outsider Battleship to Victory in the Grand National. The spine was healed by a miracle operation. Severa. pieces of bone were grafted to the spine from his leg and Hobbs, son of a famous trainer, was able to watch the next Grand National from the Aintree stands. Wounded in Italy, he is now recovering in England and has reduced his weight by 28 pounds to 154.

Hugh Trainor, young racing apprentice who was discharged from the army when he lost his right leg in the cross-channel shelling at Dover, will have a chance to ride again. He applied to a reinstatement committee for permission to rejoin the Manton stables and stated he already had ridden hacks since the loss of his limb. Trainor joined the Manton stables in July of 1939 and was called up two years ago. He was discharged from the army this year, four months before his apprentice would have been completed. He now has an artificial leg. Trainor told the committee that he "loved" horses and "dearly" wanted his old job back. It was merely a matter of knowing the horse, he said. The Manton stables agreed to give him a month's trial.

The British Boxing Board of Control announced that Joe Curran of Liverpool has earned the right to meet Jackie Paterson of Glasgow for the World, British and British Empire flyweight titles held by Paterson. The contest now is open for promoters to arrange.

Walter Hutchinson, publisher and race horse owner, has purchased the famed training establishment at Stockbridge, Hampshire, run by trainer H. S. Persse.

Oxford and Cambridge will engage in another wartime boat race next February. Oxford won the last race last February.

W. J. Hoare, 56, rugby football critic who wrote under the name of "Old Stager," died at Cardiff. He attended all international matches for many years and was a member of the staff of the Cardiff Western Mail and the South Wales Echo.
