PT. EDWARD WAS WINNER

The finance committee reported to the city council last night the sale of one-half of lot 30, block 27, section 1, to Mrs. Pavlikis for $110 and lots 50 to 59, block 26, section 9, to M. M. Stephens & Co. Ltd. for $150, the understanding being that the city will not provide services for the latter property.

F. W. Chandler had a letter before the city council last night requesting that installation be made of a new 1 1/2-inch water line instead of the existing inadequate 3/4-inch line serving his photographic studio as well as a beauty parlor and other nearby premises. Mr. Chandler offered to contribute 10c per foot to the cost of such an installation. The matter was referred to the board of works for report.

SPORTS

On July 6 at the Staff House Dining Hall the Boilermakers' Athletic Club will present another fight card. Among the many talented fighters who will appear on the card will be that old favorite of the fans, Benny Wendie who is returning to the boxing world after a short absence. The fans are clamoring for a return bout between Young Lider of the American Army and Young Tommy Burns of the Canadian Army. It is hoped that negotiations to match these boys will be successful.

AIR GIRLS KEEP LEAD

Wrens Win Over Booth School in Ladies' Softball

Strengthening their grip on first place in the Women's Softball League, the Air Force W.D.'s defeated the Allies 14 to 4 last night on Acropolis Hill. It was the W.D.'s third successive victory.

Nora Perry went the distance for the winners on the mound and held the opposition to seven scattered hits, while her teammates pounded out 15 blows.

Score by innings:
Allies 120 000 1-4
W. D.'s 132 423 x-14

Lowie and Hawkins; Perry and Murray.

WRENS BEAT BOOTH SCHOOL

The Wrens scored seven runs in the first inning at Gyro Park and then coasted to a 14 to 11 victory over Booth Memorial High School. The triumph gave the Navy girls sole possession of fourth place in the circuit.

MacDonald pitched the whole seven frames for the winners and was nicked for 12 hits while the Wrens combed the combined offerings of three High School hurlers for 10.

Hamilton of Bo-Me-Hi connected for the tilt's only home-run in the sixth inning with the bases vacant.

Score by innings:
Wrens 703 300 1-14
B-Me-Hi 020 114 3-11

MacDonald and Griffith; Thornton, Caldwell, Berg and Meredith.

Standings of the league teams follow:

Northern B.C. Softball Title Decided at Terrace Over Week-end

Port Edward won the Northern British Columbia softball tournament at Terrace over the week-end, defeating Soo Suds in the final round.

The first meeting of the season between the Navy and Royal Canadian Air Force softball teams last night at Seal Cove proved to be a pitchers' battle with the Flies emerging victorious by a score of 3 to 0. It was the sailors' second setback in the Service League and the triumph was the R.C.A.F.'s third.

Ron Cranston, the Air Force pitcher, was the first moundsman to shut out Navy this year and, in so doing, he limited the tarts to four hits.

League standings follow:

"A" Division

	W.	L.	Pct.
Barrett	6	0	1.000
Port Edward	3	1	.750
1st Ack-Ack	3	2	.600

On the other hand, Ivor Cross, the Navy's hurler, was touched for only two hits but, coupled with errors, they were damaging.

Score by innings:
Air Force 020 000 1-3
Navy 000 000 0-0

Cranston and Glendenning; Cross and Kobianski.

The strong Port Edward team is scheduled to meet the Second Coast Regiment in a Service Softball League game tonight at Gyro Park. In earlier engagements Engineers clash with First Coasters and Signals collide with Dry Dock.

On Wednesday six games are slated to be played. At Gyro Park, Navy tackles Ordnance, Signals oppose Air Force and First Coasters play Second Ack-Acks. On the Seal Cove diamond, Soo Suds are pitted against First Ack-Acks, Dry Docks play Harbor Squad and the W.D.'s and Bo-Me-Hi will clash in a postponed game.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. (By Dorothy Garbutt)

The Port Edward boys and girls added their bit to the general uplift, morale and entertainment of the troops Sunday night at the "Capitol Theatre" when they put on their G.I. Review called "Stairway to Hollywood." This was a series of skits, gags, and songs and the whole was held together by Walter Morgan, the master of ceremonies. Dressed in an amusing combination of dinner jacket, lumberjack boots and a battered felt hat he wisecracked his way between each number. Introducing the Port Edward Revelairs, an eight-piece orchestra who played their own spot numbers and accompanied the musical numbers, Walter gave way to Carlson, Whitman and Douglas—that's the way they would have been billed in the old vaudeville days—in a neat little skit with a comic denouement. Following upon this Private Johns as a very dark ducky told us about his folks and the time he went b'ar huntin' with the preacher.

Betty Greg, candidate for Queen in the coming carnival, was introduced and asked for the support of the audience.

A nicely staged cabaret scene was the background for some more music by the Revelairs and songs by Joey McInnes and Corporal Webb. During Joey's song several stalwart soldiers in the audience sighed loudly in unison and came near to swooning thus making Joey a female Sinatra. A dramatic rendering of old sob classic, "Brother Can You Spare A Dime" by the versatile Morgan was followed by four boys playing "Are You Nervous in the Service. Mervie?" a boogie woogie number by Sergeant Miller. Those playing were Sergeant Miller, piano, Pte. Brown trumpet, Pte. Carlson, clarinet, and Port Edward's Clark Gable, Yyrone Power and Victor Mature all in one, that little brown-eyed boy on the drums, Johnny Howard from Massachusetts.

Boston, I presume? As a finale the crack Drill Squad of Port Edward, under Sergeant Sides, gave a novel and entertaining display of precision and eccentric drill. Those boys could make their muskets sit up and eat out of their hands. And the amazing part was that they took all their orders in what seemed to be a foreign tongue—at least it was intelligible only to the drill squad. The main word, barked at close intervals seemed to be "Hup!" And how they hupped!

The evening was closed by band very courteously played our National Anthem. The Special Services Branch of American Army, to whom give our thanks.

The armed forces are requested by the city to refrain from dumping and rocks on the city streets less they are prepared to adequate repairs. A recommendation to this effect from board of works was adopted.

WE'LL DO IT AGAIN - but we need YOUR HELP!

Yes, we need your help... and need it badly. This is the biggest job we have ever tackled! Everything depends upon Victory.

Canada's Army needs volunteers NOW! And, that means you and you and you.

Wear Canada's Badge of Honour on your arm. You'll be proud of it, so will your family.

Every man who is able has got to do his bit!

Maybe you don't think this means you... that it's a job for the other fellow.

If you do, you're wrong. It's your war, too... a war for every man who is a man... for everyone who has a stake in Canada.

Yes, this means you all right and we need you now for the months of intensive training to make you fighting-fit. We did it before and we can do it again... but we need your help.
