RANGERS LOSE TO SOO SUDS Softball Trophies

Are Presented At Port Edward

Wildness in the first inning the part of the opposing oitcher, Maynard, paved the way for the Soo Suds to defeat Rangers 3 to 1 in a post-season exhibition softball game yesterday at Port Edward.

The winners put together three walks and a single to secure two of their three runs in the initial frame. Squizatto hurled the victory for Soo Suds, striking out 11 and yielding only five hits. Maynard fanned eight and gave up seven Since the Algoma Park opening was postponed, the presentation of trophies was made at Port Edward instead of on the local field. The Prince Rupert area cup was presented to Port Edward. Shields were awarded to the Port nine for winning A Section and
