ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.

(By DOROTHY GARBUTT)

Better get your tickets good and early for this week's Sunday show at the Capitol. It's a Vancouver Service Shows troupe, featuring Freddie Gordon, popular Hollywood M.C., and the Footlights Follies, and from advance notices from Prince George and Smithers where they have already played they are a first class organization. This show will play the different units as well as the Navy Drill Hall, so I understand, but more later.

"Mac" MacPherson has arrived from the Victoria area to join our Y.M.C.A. ranks here. He is taking over Art Peacock's work at the forts. In the meantime Art will take over Walker Wiley's work as soon as Walker leaves on furlough. Sorry to say that Douglas Badger, who does the "Y" work at Group headquarters, was called home this week because of the grave illness of his mother, in Toronto. Don Forward has returned from Vancouver.

Thought for today:

Would I were the lordly eagle,
Roaming the world at will,
Instead of a lowly seagull
Searching the ocean for swill.

INTRODUCED BANANA

Cooking Is Easy For British Waafs

LONDON, Feb. 23 (CP) — The R.A.F. has made a start on converting its uniformed Waafs into postwar housewives. On air stations throughout England, off duty classes in cookery are being organized to teach the girls who now man control towers and operations rooms how to plot a course in a kitchen.

The R.A.F. educational officers and the home economics teachers who have organized the classes say that the girls turn to cooking, ironing and sewing as a relief from service duties.

Woman Shatters House Precedent

LONDON, Feb. 23 (CP)—For the first time in the history of the British House of Commons there is a woman Hansard reporter recording the debates of parliament in shorthand. Mrs. Jean Winder is the pioneer.

A very few women previously invaded the house as reporters in the Press Gallery and as shorthand reporters for Hancard in standing committees.

THE NEED GROWS AS VICTORY NEARS

$10,000,000 needed NOW!

This is the year of supreme effort, the year Red Cross will be needed as never before. And as our all-out victory drive gains momentum, as casualty lists mount, as the horrors of war spread wider and sink deeper, this need will grow.

We must see them through: the fighting men on every front, the gallant Merchant Navy, the wounded and maimed in British and Canadian hospitals, Prisoners of War, the homeless war orphans of Britain and the suffering millions of Europe.

Only the Red Cross meets this call for vital life saving food for Prisoners of War parcels, medicines, comforts, blood serum and nursing that spell survival for so many. There is no one else to do the job.

That is why we cannot fail: why we ask you to open your hearts and purses, giving to the limit of your ability.

Remember, Victory will not be cheap; the real need lies ahead.
