

A New Year's Confession

From a store's point of view and from a customer's point of view, these are trying times. In spite of the fact that business is still more plentiful than supplies, we want you to know that we appreciate your business very much at all times. We know that at times, with some, we have not pleased 100%. We hope you'll forgive and try us again.

CHRISTMAS IS HAPPILY SPENT—TWO FILM IS COMING

METLAKATLA, Dec. 28—Christmas was carried through with joy reaching and filling the hearts of the whole community. Christmas eve followed the Sunday evening service. At the latter, the choir, conducted by W. Campbell, rendered an anthem very nicely. Instrumentalists were E. Leighton, E. Ryan and J. Auckland, with Mrs. Campbell at the organ. Rev. B. Shearman gave a special Christmas message. Christmas morning celebration of the Holy Communion was well attended. The choir again was in attendance and the singing of Christmas carols brightened the service.

Heaviest mail for many years reached the village but was quickly and promptly dealt with through the efficiency of Mrs. Beatrice Ryan, the postmistress. Radio reception at Metlakalta is very good, and the people of the village appreciated the Christmas program of the Rupert CFPR radio station.
