A.R.P. Responsibility . . .

We do not propose to suggest that to bring about an improvement in the Civil Protection set-up in Prince Rupert it is essential to transfer, as proposed, Me-Hi. Hill made 6 points for the responsibility and leadership of the organization from the executive as now constituted to the mayor and city council. We do hope, however, that the A.R.P. will not be made into a football to be kicked back and forward in any contention as to who should or should not be responsible for the leadership and organization. There was a note of perfunctoriness in Funeral Of the manner in which it was handled at the city council meeting Monday when the communication from the present Civil Protection Committee chairman was read pointing out that A.R.P. was a civic responsibility which should be taken over by the city.

A. R. P., if it is of any importance at all, is at the Grenville Court Chapel of a matter of greatest urgency and one that should the B. C. Undertakers yesterday have immediate and effective attention, not just something that can be attended to when time per- Rev. A. J. Donnell. pastor of mits. If the time ever came, and military authorities have expressed the opinion that it is quite possible that it may when A.R.P. service would be needed, Ukrainian residents and others other matters would mean little.

The A.R.P. in Prince Rupert has been lagging for some time and it is important that it should receive early and effective tonic. Certainly, there should be no time wasted in arguing about who should be responsible for it.

Shipbuilding Work . . .

The announcement that Wartime Shipbuilding has ordered fourteen Victory ship freighters to be Family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wallace built this year at Vancouver, Victoria and Prince Rupert shipyards means that there will still be substantial activity at the coast yards in 1944 although of the Labor-Progressive Club, on reduced scale from last year. With the likelihood Mike Corney, and the Federation of some paval shipbuilding contracts also coming up in addition to the freighters, the possibility of a collapse in shipbuilding on the British Columbia coast for this year at least is removed.

The Annual Meeting of the CIVIC CENTRE ASSOCIATION will be held on THURSDAY, JAN. 20th, at 8 p.m. in the City Hall. All persons interested should attend this meeting at which the public will appoint their representatives to the Management.

Sick Visiting

Many Attentions Paid During Year to Patients in Service Hospitals Here.

During the past year 2615 patients in service hospitals in Prince Rupert were visited, according to the report of Mrs. J. B. Gibson, convener of the sick visiting committee, presented at the anual meeting of the local branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society last night. There were 1927 visits to military hospitals, 310 to the navy, 366 to the air force and 12 to Royal Canadian Air Force, Women's Division. This was a slight increase over the preceding year.

There were fifteen members on the sick visiting committee The double funeral of D'Arcy and their activities included Dawson and John Pollberg, two distribution of magazines, cigelderly men who passed away arettes, chocolate bars and in their cabins across the har- garden flowers in season.
