To the Health Seeker

+ + + +

Perhaps, a "Belief" exists that "everything has been tried and, failed"? Has "faith" subsided to the low ebb of accepting as a fact, the belief that a disease is incurable? Meanwhile, a vague misgiving persists that: Somehow, somewhere there must be an answer to incurability.

Chiropractically, the greatest handicap to health restoration is: So many cherish a traditional faith or belief to the bitter end. Meantime, a simple disease descends into an indefinite and complicated realm of incurABILITY. Thus faith and belief hinders, and denies, the natural self-curABILITY within themselves the rightful duty to remedy (meaning: to cure again).

Such statements, of disease, special or general are verified by an exhaustive survey. Over 93,000 persons turned, when disillusioned and disappointed, to Chiropractic (Nature) as a LAST resort.

Some 410 qualified Chiropractors raised no question as to the merits of faith, belief or, the competency of any remedy, to cure again. Nature had preordained that everything was incorporated within. Nature's OWN Remedy substituted incur-ABILITY for cure or marked improvement in 79,000 cases; or, 85% of tiresome, intangible disease names.

A critical reader may question this astonishing record. For the needy there are two basic considerations: The belief that a condition is obstinately incurable as, against the Chiropractic record with thousands of varied, incurable cases. Both cannot be right.

When faith and belief fails to move mountains, Mahomet must go to the mountain. Possibly, the earnest Health Seeker discerns, by the mountainous record, that everything has not been tried; that, high odds yet remain in his favor.

As Mahomet would resolve: If Chiropractic eventually, why not . . . NOW!

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH —

Last Year Successful

At the annual congregational meeting of First Presbyterian Church held on Monday evening in the church hall, Rev. A. F. MacSween presiding, reports presented by the various departments and organizations of the church showed that the past year had been one of fruitful achievements and encouraging progress.

In presenting his report as moderator of session, Mr. MacSween made a serious and searching analysis of present conditions of civic, provincial and national life. He believed that, despite exceedingly difficult and abnormal conditions in the city, the congregation could view the work accomplished during the year with much satisfaction. Looking forward to postwar reconstruction he emphasised the fact that spiritual and moral changes, accompanied by genuine religious growth in the lives of men and women, must be the fundamental prerequists for all worthwhile political, industrial and social reforms. The time was at hand when not only this church but every church in the land must formulate plans which would enable the Christian Church to take its rightful place of leadership in handling the great work of religious, moral, and social upbuilding which would soon confront the world in the great and glorious days ahead.

E. J. Smith, in presenting the report of the board of managers gave the good news that the congregation was entirely free of all local debt and could start the new year with an operating surplus.

Other reports presented were as follows:

Session—W. W. C. O'Neill.

Budget Committee — Samuel Massey.

Women's Auxiliary — Mrs. James Simpson, secretary and Mrs. James Hadden, treasurer.

Women's Missionary Society—Mrs. MacSween.

Sunday School — C.G. Ham, secretary and E. J. Smith treasurer.

Junior and Senior Choirs—Mrs. J. A. Teng.

Financial Statement — E. J. Smith, congregational treasurer.

OFFICERS FOR YEAR ELECTED

The election of officers for 1944 resulted as follows:

Congregational Secretary, W. W.C. O'Neill.

Congregational Treasurer, E. J. Smith.

Board of managers — E. J. Smith, James Bremner, and Mr. McMullan (three years) W. D. Lambie and Robert Parker (two years) C. G. Ham, G. Mitchell, R. R. Strachan, and William Martin (continuing).

Trustees—Mr. Justice A. M Manson, G. R. Naden.

Auditor—R. R. Strachan.

By a unanimous congregational vote J. A. Teng and H. C. Calderwood were added to the session. Other members of session are Rev. A. F. MacSween, moderator, W. W. C. O'Neill, clerk, S. Massey and J. E. Davey.

The congregation decided to purchase the electric organ which has been lent to the church by the kindness of G. C. Walker.

The meeting closed with the benediction by the moderator.

Tea and refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the ladies' of the congregation.

British Film Showing Here

"The Common Touch" Combines classical and Light Music With Drama.

An unusual British picture is showing at the Capitol Theatre here today in "The Common Touch" combines music — some fine characterizations by players whose names are practically unknown on this side of the Atlantic.

"The Common Touch" combines music—some classical and some light—with a dramatic theme. Action swings in and out of London night clubs with some colorful specialties but concentrates on a hostel for down-and-outers in the Limehouse district where the music of artists who have seen better days acts as a balm for derelicts. The London Symphony Orchestra supplies background music throughout although it does not actually appear. This background is based on Tchaikowsky's famous and popular Concerto number and, at one point, Mark Hambourg appears as a street pianist.

The chief actor is young Geoffrey Hibbard who, upon the death of his wealthy father, inherits a huge London business and, instead of accepting the lot of a figurehead, insists on learning all angles of the business, going to the slums when he suspects crooked work on the part of one member of the board.

WHEN CLOTHES BECOME Uniforms

As the "survival war" develops, uniforms take the place of clothes. Not only armed services but civilian services require identification by uniforms, so the great garment industry is converted to war purposes.

In the great war drama an army of workers, chiefly women, are engaged in this important task of transforming peace-time "individualists" into uniformed members of war-time organizations.

Thousands of Canadian women, toiling to turn out uniforms for others to wear, are contributing beneficially to the total war effort. They are a valuable part of the great, united team of the United Nations.

To women in all lines of industry and in the home, the Bank of Montreal offers co-operation through savings and chequing accounts and other bank services available through hundreds of branches conveniently located.
