TROOPS ENJOY SERVICE SHOW

Excellent Entertainment
At Capitol Sunday Night

An excellent program was presented for the entertainment of troops and service personnel at the Capitol Theatre on Sunday evening. The program featured a very smart dance orchestra, the old time musicians known as the "Rhythm Rangers," and talented soloists who were all of an Ontario regiment, aided by the lovely singing of Miss Agnes Grant, and the capable, corny, clowning of Miss Pat Love and Miss Evelyn Bussey.

The opening number "In the Mood," a very smart arrangement by the orchestra, established the spirit of the show, which moved on a smartly brisk pace from opening to close. Pte. Norman Upper enchanted the audience with a splendid tenor voice singing "When Irish Eyes are Smiling" and "My Shining Hour."

Following this a streamlined "M" Test was presented to two sailors and an Air Force Sergeant who went through their tests to the accompaniment of shrieks of laughter from the audience as each candidate grappled with his post-war problems by hanging out a long line of articles ranging from long woolly flannels to the shearest of ladies' unmentionables.

Following this a musical quiz in the Professor Kay Kyser manner proved that the candidates were well informed musically and the aid of the audience was called for only once or twice. At the end of the musical quiz program the charming Carnival Queen candidate for the Sons of Norway, Miss Eleanor Storseth, was introduced to the audience.

A violin solo by Pte. Otto Slater, "Hungarian Dance" evoked a great deal of applause and for his encore the soloist played "Intermezzo" which was very enthusiastically received.

Songs by Pte. Len Stuart — "When the Lights Go on Again" and "I Wish I Could Hide Inside This Letter" necessitated this artist's returning to the stage to acknowledge the numerous calls of the audience.

The "Rhythm Rangers," under the guidance of Cpl. Thiebault, provided joy to the lovers of wide open music and the singing of Hill-Billy songs by Cpl. Phillipon added to the vast open spaces of the music.

Following this grouping Miss Agnes Grant sang "If I Had My Way," "No Love, No Nothing," and the "Anniversary Waltz" and was called back again and again by very vociferous rounds of applause.

Next came a humorous monologue by Carl Clay. This in turn was followed by an unusual quartette enlisted from the orchestra who rendered "Ten Little Soldiers on a Ten-Day Leave" in a truly masterly way but who found themselves unable to give an encore as that was the only record they had back-stage.

This group of "fakers" was followed by Lieut. Ken Rogers who sang "My Heart Tells Me" which was so warmly greeted by the audience that he was called upon for an encore, this time singing "I Love You Truly."

Following this Sgt. Buchanan, who had so capably accompanied soloists Slater and Upper, gave a delightful piano rendition of Hoge Carmichael's celebrated "Star Dust."

The orchestra then played two really hot numbers—"Take It Easy" and their special arrangement of "Sweet Sue" which brought the program to a close.

Carl Clay acted as master of ceremonies and his easy flow of repartee delighted the audience, kept the performers in an extremely happy vein and maintained a really smart and showman like pace throughout.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

The spring salmon run has been slowing down considerably of late on all the trolling grounds, it is reported by incoming packers. This is in contrast to a good run of sockeye which still continues for the gillnetters on this part of the coast. The full trolling fleet is now out but the results are none too encouraging, it is said.
