SOO-SUD NOTES

Mining activity in the Sault Ste. Marie area has shown a marked increase so far this year. About 100 claims have been recorded and 20 new mining licenses issued.

A newly published book, "Call it the North Country," by J. Barlow Martin, of Chicago, tells the story of northern Michigan and the Ontario Soo country. It is the most comprehensive book in years about the storied Lake Superior area.

Soo race horse owners and racing fans met recently to try and revive the sport which has been drooping locally. It was decided to enlist public support for reconditioning the race track and plans were made to enter local horses at the Manitoulin Island races.

"Riding High" is Feature This Friday and Saturday at Capitol Theatre

A musical in technicolor, co-starring Dorothy Lamour, Dick Powell and Victor Moore, comes to the Capitol Theatre this Friday and Saturday in "Riding High," a gay story in western style with music including seven hit tunes.

The yarn is that of a counterfeiter who tries to elude a shiriff and play cupid to Dorothy and Dick at the same time. Miss Lamour has the role of an exburlesque queen who returns to Arizona because her father has become part owner of a silver mine. Dick is the other owner but the mine has not been able to operate without money and that is where the counterfeiter comes in and things commence to hum.

Seven hit tunes are featured in the film—"You're the Rainbow, "Whistling in the Light," "Injun Gal, Heap Hep," "He Loved Me Till the All Clear Came," "Get Your Man," "Willie, the Wolf of the West" and "I'm the Secretary to the Sultan."

ART'S ROMAN PREMIERS
