Whifflets From The Waterfront

Recently the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce endorsed a resolution asking the federal government to spend $2,000,000 on clearing the Fraser River of obstruction to the salmon run and also proposing the extension of the three-mile limit in order to aid the protection of the Pacific halibut fisheries from encroachment. The minister of fisheries, Hon. Ernest Bertrand, has replied that $1,- 000,000 has been appropriated by the Canadian government and $1,000,000 by the United States government for the work in the Fraser River by international arrangement. No answer is given by the minister in regard to the extension of the three-mile limit.

NURSERY SCHOOLS believe that every child needs a between-meal lunch, and this is endorsed by Dr. L. B. Pett, who suggests that mothers with pre-school children at home follow the same practice.

It is regular nursery school routine to give the children milk in the middle of the morning when they are most active. Playing games uses up energy and milk gives the food elements needed to keep children going all morning. In the afternoon, after the daily rest period, a glass of fruit juice is sufficient.

Fats and dripping are important in every kitchen, especially in wartime. They should be used up as soon as possible and kept cold until used. If left at room temperature they will go rancid.

Milk, cream and butter absorb flavors from other foods and should be kept tightly covered.

NAIROBI — The work of the rehabilitation centre for disabled African soldiers in Kenya has been extended. Extra temporary accommodation is at present being built, including workshops for the manufacture of artificial limbs.

Bolivia was once known as the upper Peru.

LETTER FROM HOME . . .

"We've got the seed catalogues. We're planning a bigger vegetable garden this year."
(Tomorrow we go into the line . . . Now we'll get a chance at Jerry).
"Dad's putting in overtime at the plant. Sally and I are working hard for the Red Cross".
(I can see the little room now . . . Books, pipes, fishing tackle, those snaps of Mary at the lake).
"Mary's looking sweeter than ever. She carries your picture in her purse."
(I'd like to be holding Mary in my arms right now. We'd talk about what we're going to do after the war).

"There was a special service on Easter Sunday. We prayed for victory and your safe return."
(Easter's over now . . . It won't be any picnic tomorrow. We'll need all the shells and bombs we can pour on Jerry).
"We're all getting ready to buy more Victory Bonds."
(Wonder how much dough it takes to run this war . . . Plenty, I guess . . . That's what the Victory Bonds are for).
"We'll see you get what you need, son. It's little enough when we think of what you're doing for us."
(Good old mother and dad! They know how we depend on this stuff we're taking up the line . . . Well, we got a job to do tomorrow . . . Good night, mother! Good night, dad!)
