Arnold Flaten will leave Saturday night for Vancouver, combining private business with attendance at the annual convention of the British Columbia branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Ald. G. W. Rudderham, ten days after the incident, is still unable to resume his work because of injuries sustained when he and Ald. J. S. Black were set upon by American soldiers on the street. It may be another week before he will be able to return to his normal duties.

"A TRIP through the Gillette factory showed me why I always get clean, quick shaves with Blue Gillette Blades. I saw steel hardened in automatically-controlled electric furnaces . . . saw the blades sharpened in grinding machines weighing several tons—yet so precise that they are adjustable to 1/10,000 of an inch. So my advice to any man who wants to enjoy shaving is to use Blue Gillette Blades."
