Children Today... Citizens Tomorrow

It's a thrill to watch Young Canada—at school—at play—to see them tackle each new-found problem of the day—bright eyed—fearless—buoyant—their attitude symbolic of the whole spirit of our Nation.

They're our most priceless National Asset—and we realize it—realize the important place young folk occupy in our National Life.

We feel it a privilege to serve them—and we consider it a serious responsibility to serve them RIGHT—the way they—and you—want it.

BATHING BEAUTIES

An elaborate bathing beauty contest on a scale never before attempted promises to be one of the outstanding new features of the 1944 Civic Centre Carnival. The committee reports considerable interest already aroused. There will be a first-prize of $100 and second and third prizes of $60 and $40 respectively. Additional prizes may be awarded. All entrants will receive free a new bathing suit of their own choice in which to appear for the gala affair. Participants will receive credit for personality and poise as well as for form and figure and selection of the winners will be made from a systematic series of eliminations whereby all entrants will parade only once while the prize winners will appear three times during the Carnival Week.

In the Carnival Queen contest three organizations have so far selected their entrants. The Carnival committee reports favorable progress in each department. Entrants in all contests are being asked to provide pictures wherever possible immediately as it is hoped to use this form of publicity extensively and some time is required to prepare them for publication.

Rebekah Lodge Birthday Party

One evening last week the Rebekah and Oddfellows gathered to celebrate the twenty-fifth birthday of Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 40.

The Noble Grand, Miss Molly Owens, welcomed the members with a few well-chosen words.

Mrs. James Simpson acted as mistress of ceremonies for the evening.

Mrs. T. H. Priest, past noble grand and a charter member of the order, recalled to mind some of the various halls having been used for meetings, also the past noble grands, during the last 25 years. It was mentioned that Mayor H. M. Daggett was the first noble grand of the Oddfellows' Lodge.

At the close of the program Mrs. James Simpson read a patriotic poem that was written by Fred Olsen, caretaker of the hall.

Refreshments were served, the centre of attraction being a beautiful birthday cake. Before the cake was cut, Mr. Daggett spoke a few words referring to the first year of the order and of many pleasant memories.

The conveners for the evening were Mrs. James Simpson, Mrs. J. M. McIntyre, Mrs. T. H. Priest, Mrs. J. W. McKinley and Miss M. Owens.

LET'S HEAR MORE FROM FISHERMEN

The other day we quoted from a letter telling that most of the fishermen on the Coast are 100% users of Pacific Milk. He goes on to ask why we never talk about the fishing industry and its cooks as we have about miners and prospectors who use Pacific. Will fishermen write us?
