LOCAL FIRM IN BUSINESS AT SMITHERS

SMITHERS, Sept. 15-William Watts of Watts and Nickerson, Prince Rupert, arrived in Smithers on Tuesday morning to make arrangements to take over the hardware store and business of Arthur L. Evitt of Evitt's Hardware. Stock has now been taken and the business is now opening under the management of James Park. It is reported that it will be enlarged with a new building on the adjacent lot and branched out into new lines.

Mr. Evitt was originally farming in the Bulkley Valley but went into business in town som eighteen years ago and has continued ever since, building up very nice clientele. He also es tablished a hot-house on 160 acres of land about 3 miles from Smithers and now has a very over to his son, Leonard Evit who operaties it very successfully.

Mr. and Mrs. Evitt expect to leave Smithers permanently and naimo area on Vancouver Island where Mr. Evitt has already become interested in some property.
