Affair Wednesday Night in Honor of Ellis Morris

Members of the Prince Rupe Gyro Club gathered in a sta party at the home of W. Lambie, 4th ave. east, to say farewell to one of the popular members, J. Ellis Morris, who is leaving tonight for Vancouver to take up future residence. Feature of the evening' proceedings was the presentation of an inscribed wallet Mr. Morris as a parting gift Suitable sentiments were voiced by President Frank Skinner in making the presentation and Mr. Morris replied appropriately. The evening was spent in informal entertainment. Amerigo Dominato and Allan Sheardown had charge of ar-

Members of the Loyal Order told of the work done at "Mooseheart, the children's city" by reme Governor, at a banquet observing the thirty-first anniversary of the founding of that institution held in the staff house dining hall last night.

Mr. Hockley's address followed gram. About 150 attended.

Mooseheart, a home institution for children of deceased members of the Moose order, is situated near Chicago, and has facilities for 1500 children. Its 160 buildings, spread over 1,200 acres of park land, are fireproof and modern, the speaker said.

The care received by the children, who range in age from 11 months to 17 years, is the best that modern knowledge and an open heart can provide. About 700 are there at present.

"Undoubtedly Mooseheart is one of the happiest institutions in the world," Mr. Hockley declared. Mooseheart also holds the best health record for any institution in the world. There have been no deaths there is 10 years, the added. The training received at the home accents high moral character and useful skills. As the children develop they have the choice of taking any type of training for which they are inclined. When they graduate they are work without apology for any lack of skill. "Graduates say that their most painful experience a Mooseheart was leaving it," Mr.

equipped to enter their line of Hockley concluded. Mr. Hockley was introduced
