WELL RECEIVED A warm reception was accorded three one-act plays presented by students of Booth Mer/rial High School by an audience

True, he did make off with a pan full of tarts but these were baking failures of Princess Violetta. He returned with a pan of tarts which the whole court described as cutinary triumphs, thus enabling Princess Violetta to become Queen of Hearts on the strength of the King's totally unjustified belief in her baking ability.

> The play was introduced by Peggy Pullen and the part of Pomydebile, King of Hearts, was played by Alma Knutson, the Lady Violetta by Joanne Langridge, the Knave by Solveig Mork, and the Chancellor by Evelyn Waywood. The cast of 21 was directed by Miss M. Jones.

The solution to two gruesome murders came to light in "The Jewelled Hand" when Douglas Burns, played by Bob Cruickshank, gave Lorraine Andrews (Janet Rochester) an engagement ring which had been stolen, from her mother 10 years before. Considering that the ring had been taken from her mother's hand after the hand had been severed from her dead body in a moonlit garden, Miss Andrews was a bit shocked. After Berta pretended to fall down a well and after a hair pulling episode between Salome and Celestina, which cost five pesos in penance money because it took place on Sunday, Fidel eventually won Berta for his bride. He also won the prospect of carving a church

The part of Berta was played by Jean Bernard; Salome by Glenys Lashmar; Tonia by Ruth Walton, and Celestina by June Berg. The play was directed by Miss D. Kovach.

During intermissions Christnas carols were sung by groups of junior students under Miss Florence Connor, music teacher. These were well presented and appreciated by the audience.

All Basketball Was Posponed

All basketball games scheduled to be played last night on Acroplis Hill were postponed. The three fixtures will be played next Wednesday evening.
