IN MEMORIAM—

George Henderson

Former member Communist Party in Prince Rupert, killed fighting Nazis in Italy.

And of all the brave Canadians who gave and are now giving their lives for precious freedom in Spain, Dieppe, Italy, France, in the air and on the sea.

"You marked not the dangers around you
Nor fear kept your foot from the fray
You only said 'This way lies freedom,'
And bravely set out on your way."

THREE WAYS: There are three ways of cooking that most delectable of fall vegetables—squash. Baking takes about an hour; steaming calls for about half an hour; frying can be accomplished in about 15 minutes. No matter the variety, small acorn or pepper squash, patty pan or pie squash, crooked neck and large hubbards, the method is pretty much the same.

For baking, cut the squash in half, remove the seeds and pithy portions and bake, cut side down, in a moderately hot oven until tender—about an hour. Scoop out pulp and mash thoroughly, seasoning with salt, pepper and a little butter or bacon fat and, it it can be spared, a teasoon or two of brown sugar. For serving "in the piece" bake until nearly tender—about 40 minutes, then sprinkle cut surfaces with brown sugar, dot with butter and bake about 20 minutes longer or until squash is tender and golden.

Steaming: cook the peeled diced squash in a steamer for about half an hour or until tender. If you haven't a steamer use a colander or sieve, placed over boiling water in a large saucepan or kettle. Serve, diced or masned, with seasoning to taste.

To fry, peel and slice squash quite thinly, season with salt and pepper and cook slowly in a covered pan, using two tablespoons fat to 6 cups of squash. Time—about 15 minutes.

WHOLE GRAIN: "I hear a lot about whole grain cereals these days, how can I tell whole grain from refined grain?"

That's a question that bothers many a housewife. Here's the answer:

Among the whole grain cereals rich in vitamins and minerals, are rolled oats, oatmeal, cracked wheat, flaked wheat, unpolished rice and pot parley. Refined cereals, less valuable from a nutritional point of view, include pearl barley, cornmeal, macaroni, noodles, spaghetti, farina and polished rice.

If you're buying ready-to-eat cereals, read the label carefully to see whether you're getting the whole grain or not. Remember, it's important to eat one whole grain cereal every day, as well as four to six slices of Canada Approved vitamin B bread.

PICKLED ONIONS: If you've been putting off pickling onions for the winter because of the work involved, here is a simple recipe for them which requires little trouble:

Take six quarts of tender small onions, peel and mix with three pounds of coarse salt. Let them stand for two days, then pour off the juice and let stand for another two days in fresh water. Drain, rinse the bottle with red wine vinegar. As a last precaution, make sure the jars are airtight.

ONIONS WITHOUT TEARS: To peel the onions for the foregoing recipe without weeping, hold them under water—either running or in a large dish.

MARJORIE WHITE HAS MADE FILMS

Daughter of Isaac White, Pioneer Local Boy, On Screen

Marjorie White, daughter of Isaac C. White, a pioneer Prince Rupert boy, who lived for years in Los Angeles, is now in the movies at Hollywood. Old friends of the family here have received word of her success in making the films. She has parts in three pictures now in production—Walt Disney's "Three Caballeros,' first of the Disney productions in which live models are combined with animated cartoons; "Hollywood Canteen" and "Sarong Girl." In the latter picture she appears as a lead dancer.

Marjorie, who is the granddaughter of Mrs. George B. White who for years conducted the White Apartments on Fourth ave. E. and is now living in Hollywood with her son, visited here with her parents several years ago and even then had ambitions to get into pictures.

Bud White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac White, is now with the United States paratroopers in France after spending a year in England with the Signals Corps.

A NOTE TO WOMEN

For many years Pacific Milk has been a kind of "clearing house" where women have sent recipes, interesting notes about child care, etc.

Would it not be a good idea if a few who have time would send in some war-time cooking experiences which might help others.
