ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

The Service Wives Club met Thursday afternoon in the Ladies' Lounge at the 'Y'. Owing to the state of the weather, and it was in a state yesterday, only six hardy ladies turned out and two children. There was no raffle but tea was served by Mrs. Strand and Mrs. Gomez.

Just three hundred and fifty eight more shopping days until Christmas, folks!

Tonight the junior hostesses and affiliated hostess groups will meet at the 'Y' for transport to the Highway dance. Y.W.C.A. chaperones for the evening will be Mrs. A. E. Evans and Mrs. S. O. Cox who are representing the Orange Lodge Women's Auxiliary.

I would like to thank Mrs. Murray for her very prompt response to my appeal for coat hangers for the boys at the Forts. She came in Thursday afternoon with a donation of over a dozen. Art Peacock, who is Y.M.C.A. supervisor to the island forts, was delighted.

Tonight there will be a ping pong tournament at the Empress 'Y'. All comers are welcome. Prizes will be given to the winners. At the Red Triangle Club on Third Avenue there will be the usual Friday evening Bingo. So you pay no money and you take your choice.

Chester le Maistre is sending out an "SOS" for civilian talent for his Sunday night shows to service men at the Capitol Theatre. In the past a large number of civilians have very kindly lent their services for these shows but so many have left town that there is so few left upon whom he can call. If anyone is interested will they call the 'Y' leaving their names and addresses and Chester will get in touch with them.

By the way when asking for Chester le Maistre the last name sounds like, well, it sounds like le Maistre with a long A.

Air Force Wedding Duly Celebrated

The New years afternoon marriage at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral of Leading Airwoman Alma Snyder and Pilot Officer Fred Teague was the occasion for celebration in local Royal Canadian Air Force circles.

With Flight Lieutenant Springborne, Air Force padre, officiating, the bride was given in marriage by Flying Officer S. Beck and was attended by Leading Airwoman Jessie Maneer as bridesmaid. Flying Officer Honeyman was groomsman. Peter Lien presided at the organ.

A reception was held at the Women's Division canteen at Group Four headquarters where Corp. Ainley Gordon was in charge. A toast to the bride was proposed by Flying Officer Honeyman and responded to by the groom.

The groom proposed a toast to the bridesmaid with the groomsman responding. Wing Commander Brooks proposed a toast to both bride and groom.

George Little of Terrace arrived in the city from the interior yesterday morning and left last night for a trip of two or three weeks to Vancouver. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Edith Little, who is returning to Vancouver after a visit to Terrace.
