BURNS LAKE FAMILY DRIVE HERE TO SHOP

An advance indication of the benefits which this city will receive from the new Skeena highway was experienced by one local merchant this week.

On Tuesday, a car carrying a family and showing signs of a long journey, stopped in on Third Avenue. A woman entered who made a sizeable purchase. She told Mrs. M. Lundstrom, proprietor, that the family had motored from Burns Lake to take in the opening celebration at Terrace and had continued to Prince Rupert.

Baby clothing such as was on display in the store was practically impossible to get in the interior, she told Mrs. Lundstrom.

"She said she had enjoyed the trip greatly, and looked forward to making it again," Mrs. Lundstrom said.
