LONDON, May 22 (CP) -Royal Air Force bombers hit Duisburg, German inland port, and Hanover overnight and also laid mines in enemy waters. An Air Ministry communique said the Duisburg attack was very heavy and the night's operations cost 30 aircraft. On Sunday 3,000 Royal Air Force, Canadian, American and other Allied planes sprayed almost every moving piece of Nazi transport sighted in Western Europe with cannon and machinegun fire.

Kiel, German submarine base, and Nazi fortifications in the Pas de Calais area of France were pounded today by 500 American bombers.

Pontecorvo, eight miles west and slightly south of Cassino, was threatened from another direction. Unconfirmed reports from Swiss radio said that Pontecorvo was already captured by the Eighth Army. Pontecorvo is the centre of the crumbling Adolf Hitler Line. The French seized Monteleucio, three miles west of Pontecurvo. Canadian infantry and armored formations were operating Sunday outside Pontecorvo with fighting limited to active patrolling and consolidation.

Meanwhile a communique from Italian patriots said that six of 25 Nazi divisions in Italy had been sent north to fight against patriots and Yugo-Slav partizans along the Italian border.
