Man Last Week

The chapel of the Annunciation Church was the scene of very pretty wedding on Tuesday morning last when Thelma Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Doiron of this city was united in marriage to Stoker Joseph Yalloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Yalloway of Fort William Father W. F. Lantagne officiated. The couple were attended by Miss Florence Walker and Petty Officer Ned Dowling.

The bride was charmingly attired in powder blue with navy blue halo hat and accessories She wore a corsage of talisman roses and lilies of the valley and carried a white prayer book. The bridesmaid wore a turtwo-piece dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents at 1026 Ninth Avenue East. The bride's mother wore a brown two-piece dress with matching accessories. Father Lantagne proposed the toast to the bridal couple. Later in the evening a reception was held, at which about eighty guests gathered to congratulate the happy couple, who stood under a huge white bell set in the wedding arch.

The table was suitably decorated with spring flowers, pink and white candles lighting up 38 the three tier wedding cake.

A number of telegrams of congratulation were received, .40 and .45 and the happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful

The bride was born in Prince .47 Rupert. The groom is serving with the Navy and has been stationed here for the past eighteen months. The couple will reside in the city for the present.
