Providing batting punch that should worry opposing moundsmen this season, Navy banged out seventeen hits to trim Signals 15 to 2 in their first Area Softball League game of the year at Gyro Park last night. In the second game of the evening Boom Defence won 21 to 6 over Ordnance while in the third Soo Suds beat Dry Dock 11 to 3.

The unluckiest loser during six-bout boxing tournament at the American Rainbow Corner Club in London's Piccadilly was Gnr. Joe Marsh of Montreal. In fact, few could understand how he lost the decision. Former British Empire Games middleweight Joe slugged Lafayette Drummond, United States Army private from St. Louis, Mo., all over the ring for three rounds, but Hayes in the third round of a two seasons ago.
