CAMBRAI CHAPTER—

GOOD WORK IS DONE IN BUSY YEAR

When the twelfth annual meeting of Cambrai Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, was held recently at the home of Mrs. Frank Skinner, reports were read showing a very satisfactory year's work. One hundred and seventeen refugee garments were completed in addition to comforts for the armed forces. The Chapter also prepared and delivered three hampers to needy families and provided fruit and magazines to patients at the military hospital where regular weekly visits are made. Donations were made to the library fund for troops stationed in this district, the camp library fund and presentations to H.M.C.S. Prince Rupert and the Susie Serabji fund.

During the year the members assisted at the Y.M.C.A. canteen five nights per week every other week; also sold stamps during the war savings drive, filled ditty bags at Christmas and helped at the ice cream booth during the civic centre carnival.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:
Honorary Regent, Miss Eileen Gibson.
Regent, Mrs. Jens Munthe.
First Vice Regent, Mrs. S. C. Elkins.
Second Vice Regent, Mrs. George Mitchell.
Secretary, Mrs. J. R. Blackburn.
Assistant Secretary, Mrs. William Noble.
Treasurer, Mrs. Robert Parker.
Educational Secretary, Mrs. R. G. Knipe.
Echoes Secretary, Mrs. Bert Withers.
Standard Bearer—Mrs. D. P. Miller.

Rheumatic Pains -- BACKACHE

Now as never before men and women must keep themselves fit and ready for work. So when you've tried everything you can think of and nothing seems to even relieve the pain and soreness, don't give up hope just go to W. J. McCutcheon, Ormes Ltd., or any good druggist, and get a bottle of Allenru. Take as directed and in about 24 hours you should see a real improvement. You needn't be afraid of Allenru containing dope of any kind — it doesn't; such things are only makeshifts and can at best give only partial relief. Allenru acts 3 ways: 1) to relieve the pain; 2) to correct the bowels; 3) as a gentle diuretic to the kidneys, flushing out excess acids. The very first bottle is guaranteed to show results and justify your confidence. If for any reason you are dissatisfied, take back the empty bottle and get your money back.

Service For Mrs. Cameron

A large number of the friends whom she had made in her more than thirty years of residence in Prince Rupert, gathered at the Grenville Court chapel at 2:30 this afternoon to pay their final respects to the late Mrs. Henry Cameron, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Adams, on Tuesday. Officiating at the service was the Very Rev. J. B. Gibson, dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral.
Dean Gibson spoke of the long and useful life of the late Mrs. Cameron, three of whose sons, and one daughter live in the city. The hymns "Rock of Ages," and "Abide With Me," were sung with Mrs. J. C. Gilker accompanying at the organ.
Interment took place in Fairview cemetery.
The pallbearers, who were friends of the deceased for the greater part of her life in Prince Rupert, were S. E. Parker, A. Silversides, H. Menzies, D. McCullough and D. Scherk.

Robbery Case Hearing Begun

The preliminary hearing of Leo Goyette, charged with robbery with violence, began this morning before Magistrate W. D. Vance in city police court. It is alleged that Goyette assaulted John Isjaski, lately employed by the Poole Construction Company, and took a sum of money from him in the L. D. Cafe on Third Avenue on the night of February 19.
Witnesses who gave testimony at this morning's session were Alex Gun-a-noot, a native, and Lee Chung, a Chinese employed at the cafe. Staff Sergeant F. W. Gallagher prosecuted and T. W. Brown acted for the defence.
The case is continuing this afternoon.
