Royal Vitamins By Ration Book

LONDON, April 21, (C) — The uniformed hotel messenger approached the manager of the only retail fruit store in Covent Garden market. "I—er—would like the King's orange ration," he began.

The Experts Say - - -

SPRING FEVER is in the air. The very best spring tonic is plenty of fruits and vegetables, especially the vitamin C-ers: citrus fruits and tomatoes, says Dr. L. B. Pett of Nutrition Services.

beat with a silver fork, or place in a jar and shake until thick and creamy. This sauce is best for green salads.

TARTARE SAUCE: To one egg, slightly beaten, add one or two teaspoons of mustard and one teaspoon of salt. Mix well, then add a few drops of salad oil and beat with a Dover egg beater, adding oil regularly a little at a time.

MAPLE SYRUP is one of our few distinctly Canadian foods and because of its fine flavor and usually limited quantity, is looked on as a special treat by most people. This season it is a rationed commodity and we don't want to waste a drop in storing or handling.

RENTAL LAWS and regulations are of special interest as May 1 "moving day" draws close and the Prices Board reminds us that while their general regulations are in effect throughout the country, they do not affect many provincial laws of long-standing.

SAUCE TALK: The French say that the sauce is half the dish, or more, and, when the sauce in question is one of the fine French sauces, they're right. One of these three, suggested by the Nutrition Bureau, can give a fillip to a plain tossed salad, vegetable or fish:

FRENCH DRESSING: 4 tablespoons of salad oil; 2 tablespoons of lemon juice or mild vinegar; 1/2 teaspoon of pepper or paprika; 1 teaspoon of salt. Mix and Bases of United States . . .

Prince Rupert might quite conceivably have more than an indirect interest in any deal whereby United States would acquire permanently British bases under the 1940 destroyer deal. As far as is known, all the bases directly affected so far are in the Atlantic Ocean and it has not been made clear whether bases on Canadian territory would be involved.

The Halibut Tie-up . . .

The halibut fishing industry will suffer through lack of fish from the present tie-up if it lasts too long. The boat owners and fishermen appear quite satisfied to bide their time providing, of course, there is not a break anywhere in the coast tie-up.

As for the matter at dispute, the ruling of the United States Office of Production Administration that there should be a cut-back in the ceiling adversely affecting the price to be paid at Prince Rupert as compared with Seattle, is doubly unpopular, tending as it does to hold the price of the product down to say nothing of the discrimination against this port which is involved.

Sweden and Reprisals . . .

In announcing that the Swedish government has decided not to accede to the request of the United States and Great Britain that Sweden cease shipping ball bearings to Germany, a Stockholm newspaper said that the matter of reprisals that might be taken against Sweden by Germany had been considered. Of course, it is reasonable to assume from this suggestion that Sweden was more fearful of Germany taking reprisals than she was of United States or Great Britain doing so.

Doubly Useful WHEN you open a can of Irradiated Carnation Milk, what you pour out is a double-concentrated milk for use in recipes calling for cream, and for creaming coffee, fruits and cereals. For milk recipes, just take half Carnation and half water. There you have whole milk consistency and full food value. Grand for drinking, too... Carnation is just whole milk with part of the natural water taken out. Sterilized so that it keeps indefinitely unopened... homogenized for creamy smoothness and Irradiated for extra "sunshine" vitamin D. Write for free illustrated cook book. Carnation Co.
