YES; billions will be needed to carry the battle into Germany.

The huge stock piles of materials will soon diminish when our troops move forward from the invasion beach-heads.

This will be a crucial year for Canadaa test of our man-power and money power-a trial of our valour, our endurance and our self-denial.

The call to full duty will come to every man and woman at home this yearthe duty to share this great year of trial with those abroad.

If each of us shoulders his full share the needed billions will be raisedthe needed support will be forthcoming for the knockout blow.

What is your share?
