Coast Regiment Beats Officers

Second Coast Regiment gained a victory in the Service Softball League by default when the Engineers were unable to field a team last night. Instead of this encounter, a friendly game was played in which Coast Regiment defeated the Garrison Officers 12 to 1.

Officers	000	000	100	1
Coast Regt.	341	020	20x	12

Hannah and McFarley; Humphries, Fraser and Duke.

No soccer games will be played this week until Navy and Signals play for the Dominion Day Cup on Saturday.

The standings of the Women's Area Softball League, including Monday's engagements, follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
W.D.'s	5	0	1.000
Allies	4	2	.666
Alumnae	3	2	.600
Wrens	3	3	.500
Bo-Me-Hi	1	5	.200
C.W.A.C.'s	1	5	.200

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.
(By Dorothy Garbutt)

I see that the Wrens are entering the big regatta on Saturday. Last night I watched them out rowing in one of those outsize canoes that pass as rowboats in the navy. I think it must have been one of their first try-outs and either the boat was too big or the oars not the right size, or the girls too small—but the coach looked a trifle on the discouraged side. However, girls are wonderfully adaptable and I'll bet by Saturday they'll have form (as if they didn't have already) finish and speed all knit together into a winning pattern.

Tomorrow night the Soo Suds are holding their regular Thursday dance and invite all the Junior Hostesses to come. The YMCA chaperones for the evening will be ladies from the Eastern Star.

We have one of those change-every-day calendars just above the clock in the "Y". It was just put up the other day but I can't say that it's a howling success. Mr. Moore forgets to alter it. Breen slips up on it and by the time I notice it I'm so vexed with those two for forgetting that I neglect to do anything about it. Right now it points to somewhere around last Sunday. Great help it is. It will be teaching the clock its slipshod ways. And I always said no good would come of our nice respectable clock going round making dates with a no-account calendar like that.

Dance tonight at the Empress Y. Remember we have no tickets at the Hut, positively not. You get them from your Y supervisor or if an American, from Special Services.
