YANKEE GADGETEERS

LONDONDERRY, Northern Ireland (CP)—Machinist Mates William Cochran and Ernest V. Burrough built a contrivance for transportation about the repair yard at this U.S. naval base. This strange looking vehicle was made entirely of scrap and discarded parts of ships and odds and ends. Called a "Creep," it has a one-cylinder engine and motorcycle transmission and gets 60 miles on a gallon of gasoline.

Port Has Its Heaviest Week of Halibut Landings — Fifty-five Boats In

Fishermen who crowded more than a million pounds of halibut into the holds of their boats in the seven-day period ending June 23, gave Prince Rupert fish buyers their heaviest week since the start of the season. Fifty-five boats brought in a total of 1,222,500 pounds of halibut. Of this 381,000 pounds was American and 841,000 pounds Canadian. The American contribution came from the holds of seven boats.

Computed up to Friday, the total of fish brought to this port this season is 3,212,300 pounds. Canadian boats have brought in 2,465,800 pounds, and American boats 746,500 pounds.

Heaviest day was on June 17 when 268,000 pounds was unloaded from 14 boats.

Biggest single catch to be unloaded was 65,000 pounds from the hold of the American boat Frigidland on June 20. Largest single Canadian catch came from the Parma on June 17. She unloaded 40,000 pounds.

The large American halibutter Albatross came to port here with 80,000 pounds on June 20 but did not unload. She left later for Seattle.

SOCKEYE SEASON OPENS UP WELL

Hopes that this year's sockeye salmon fishing will be better than last year were raised by the results of the first night's work, reports of which have reached the local Dominion Fisheries Office.

The season opened on Sunday night at six o'clock and collectors' reports indicate that the 1,000-odd boats engaged throughout the district averaged 30 fish to a boat. Highest individual catch on the Skeena was 140 fish and on the Naas 103 fish.

Bella Coola averaged about the same but catches in the Rivers Inlet and Smith's Inlet areas were considerably lower, averaging six and seven fish to a boat.

Better weather conditions this year is one of the factors which support the belief that the season will be a good one.

SOFTBALL STANDINGS

Soo Suds stand on the pinnacle in area softball with seven wins out of seven encounters. In "B" league they have not yet had the opportunity of meeting any of "A" league's teams, which are headed by Barrett, with six straight wins and no losses.

Following Soo Suds in "B" league is Navy, with five wins and two losses. In "A" league Barrett is followed by Port Edward, with six wins, and one loss.

In the women's league W.D.'s are on top with four wins, and no losses.

Folowing are league standings at the end of the week, with only the top four listed in the men's leagues:
