RED CROSS

The "biggest little" branch of the B.C. Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society is at Alert Bay, a small hamlet on Queen Charlotte Straits off the coast of Vancouver Island. This centre serves some 3,000 miles of coast and D. S. Cameron, formerly of Prince Rupert, president of the Alert Bay branch, reports that there are 1,700 members of the Red Cross in this district. It was this scattered community that raised $7,000 for the recent campaign, lonely settlers, in out of the way places, making large cash donations. Logging camps, fishing villages, lighthouses . . . all contribute their bit towards making life easier for the men who are fighting.

Better conditions for prisoners of war in the far East are being sought by British, American and Canadian Red Cross Societies in respect to personal parcels. Officials are still waiting a reply from the Japanese Red Cross to their cable sent last December from the Washington conference. However, it is known that Red Cross relief supplies have been delivered in safety at many Japanese Red Cross camps.

B.C. gardeners should be interested in the news that phenomenal vegetable crops are being harvested by prisoners in some of the German camps. At an officers camp, near the border of Switzerland, the garden this year is expected to be better than the previous season when 3,080 tomatoes, 4,000 lettuce, 1,000 carrots and 2,080 radishes were supplied the prison kitchen. Kitchen waste is used as compost enabling them to maintain and improve fertility in spite of very heavy cropping.

Nearly 1,000,000 Red Cross food parcel acknowledgment cards have been received from Geneva by the Red Cross Enquiry Bureau in Ottawa. This means that the weekly food parcels are going through to German camps in good order and that the prisoners are being well looked after by the Red Cross. Twenty-three carloads of Red Cross parcels for prisoners of war left Montreal early in July, the shipment consisting of 100,000 parcels, the weekly quota for the Canadian Red Cross Society.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.

(By Dorothy Garbutt)

Next on our list is little Sharon Billinger who received a notice earlier this week. Sharon weighed 8 lbs. 10 ounces when born on July 16th and just to keep it even arrived at eight hours 10 minutes.

On July 17th little Robert James Anderson was born to Petty Officer and Mrs. Charles Anderson. Bobby weighed 8 lbs. 8 oz. when born at 4:50 p.m. or 1650 hours, to be entirely nautical. Robert means "Bright in Counsel" and James means "Supplanter."

On the same day at 11:55 p.m. little Miss Anne Evelyn was born to Able Seaman and Mrs. Lloyd Gale. Anne weighed 8 lbs. 8 oz. when born. Anne means "Gracious" and Evelyn means "Pleasant."

Then the next day along came James Henry James — no my typewriter didn't slip, his names are the same both for'ard and aft, born to Captain and Mrs. J. G. James of Signals. Harry was born at noon and weighed 7 lbs. 10½ oz. James means "Supplanter" and Henry is "Home Ruler." And being the youngest of three I'll wager young Harry will be just that.

Last name of all that ends this strange eventful history is that of Sharon Joan Montgomery, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rayner Montgomery and whose mother was Margaret Fritz, a Rupert girl. Sharon was born on July 18th at 9 a.m. and weighed 9 lbs. 10½ oz. when born. There is no meaning given for Sharon but Joan means "The Lord's Grace."

Next Thursday the Highway Regiment is holding a dance. Junior Hostesses and chaperones will meet at the Y at 8:30 p.m. Remember, Thursday, July 25th at 8:30 p.m.

There were two Old Country seamen in the Y yesterday, "Paddy" Moran from Belfast and Mr. Farrell of Liverpool. Paddy, like a true Irishman had already found himself a Rupert girl. Met her on the train, faith and be-dad, he did so!

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

NEW GINGER ROGERS SHOW

"Tender Comrade" Starring Drama at Capitol Theatre

Courage to appreciate the past and face the future is the keynote of "Tender Comrade," Ginger Rogers' dramatic picutre Monday and Tuesday at the Capitol Theatre.

The plot concerns Jo and Chris, a couple of typical American youngsters who carry their school-day friendship into marriage and dream happily of their future.

Their plans are destroyed; Chris is called into service. Thereupon Jo gets herself a job in a defense plant. Besides the stress of separation, there are housing and transportation problems for Jo and many of the other war wives with whom she works. Four of them finally are forced to band together and rent a place of their own.

How Jo and the other girls work out their personal problems forms an engrossing narrative, the romance of Jo being highlighted in the action. The arrival of Jo's baby, and her determination to carry on for Chris Jr.'s sake, when she loses her husband, lends an emotional intensity.
