Legislative Committee, Rev. P. R. Kelly, William Beynon, Hall, Dec. 15. William Scow and Frank Assu.

An important feature of the convention was the presentation of the report of Rev. Peter STROMAS' Kelly who had been delegated to take up with the Dominion government at Ottawa matters concerning the welfare of the natives. This report was considered very encouraging.

Greetings were received from many important personages including Lieutenant Governor W. C. Woodward, Premier John Hart, Hon. T. A. Crerar, Archbishop W. M. Duke, the Bishop CAMBRIDGE, Eng. (P-A son of Victoria, United Church of has been born to the wife of Canada, Anglican Church, and
