THANKED FOR VICTORY LOAN

OTTAWA, Nov. 20 — Three Canadian leaders, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance and the general chairman of the War Finance Committee—have joined in thanking the people of the Dominion for subscribing a billion and a half dollars to the Seventh Victory Loan.
 Speaking over the national network of the CBC last night, Prime Minister Mackenzie King said:
 "It is particularly significant that, in the sixth year of war, the people of this country did not slacken their efforts—nothing could disclose more clearly the determination of our people to put, forth, in every direction, their utmost effort toward the winning of the war."
 According to figures released last night, the one billion, three hundred million dollar loan may reach one billion five hundred and ten million dollars when the final returns are tallied up.

Former Local Woman Receives King and Queen in Edinburgh

Mrs. Stanley Wilson (the former Miss Florence Smith of this city) has sent from Edinburgh a picture taken on the occasion of a visit of Their Majesties, the King and Queen, to the Canadian Legion Club, Edinburgh, on September 22. Old timers here will recognize in the picture, being shown in The Daily News window, Mrs. Norman Mackintosh standing at the left of His Majesty.
 Mrs. Mackintosh, the wife of Norman Mackintosh who was editor of The Daily News in the early days of Prince Rupert, is the manageress of the club. Mrs.
 Wilson is the club secretary.

The Canadian Legion Club at 103 Princess St., Edinburgh, consists of a lounge, writing rooms, games room, information bureau, a small store and a canteen and snack bar at which the boys and girls are supplied with either full meals or snacks, which latter usually consist of waffles and 'cakes.' The club has recently opened a 90 bed hostels for Canadian service men, in addition to which beds are booked in private homes should this be preferred.

"Mrs. Mac," as she is affectionately called by the boys and girls calling at the club, has always a cheery word for them and from the popularity of the club it can be seen that she is very successful in her aim to make this spot "a little bit of Canada."

The most recent Rupert visitor to the club was F/Sgt. Hickey McLeod, who was looking "in the pink" and was very pleased to have the opportunity of delivering through the copies of the "News" which are sent to Mrs.
 Wilson by her mother, Mrs. C.
 McF. Smith.

Ambassador Sees Dreams of Early Explorers Coming True

PROVIDENCE, Rhode Island, Nov. 20 —The American ambassador to Canada, Ray Atherton, told the opening of an exhibition on 300 years of Canadian history held at Brown University Friday that wartime co-operation has brought to Canada and the United States a unity which was first visualized by early explorers. Mr. Atherton said Champlain and other early explorers visualized North America as a single unit—a new world—without national boundary lines.
 The ambassador added:
 "I feel that today we have achieved again in spirit that North American unity which Champlain found and which Champlain described. The great war effort of Canada and the United States has recreated that unity so clearly designed by nature."

year but it will be some weeks before distribution is effected and the new pack begins to appear on retailers' shelves throughout the Dominion.

Allocation of the 250,000 cases will be handled by the Department of Fisheries which will issue releases to the salmon canners. The canners, in turn, will deal with their wholesalers and the wholesalers with their retailers on the customary quota basis.

It may be the end of December before the famous British Columbia product will be on sale at all points.

WORKING OUT
 ARMY LEAVE
 ARRANGEMENT

OTTAWA, Nov. 20 —Defence headquarters announced last night that Army personnel overseas who have completed five years of continuous service, and who wish to obtain leave, must apply through their unit commanders. A list of those applying will be maintained in all units and formations and a roll of precedence set up.

The announcement gives further details of the recently announced plan for granting 30 day leaves in Canada for overseas personnel. Between 400 and 500 men are expected to reach the Dominion before Christmas and other groups will follow later.
 Their size, however, will depend on many factors, of which shipping is the most important.

Special consideration will be given to those who have served against the enemy in the field and their periods of service in operational theatres will count double in figuring their length of service overseas. Men on leave from their units will retain their ranks and rates of pay, so that when they return to service, they will not suffer loss of seniority and will be eligible for promotion just as if their service overseas had been continuous.

Co-op Federation—Directors
 To Decide
 Policies

Centralization of authority over sales and marketing of the products of its members was outstanding among the resolutions passed by the B.C. Fishermen's Co-operative Federation at their convention which closed here at the week-end.

Sales of fish and fish products of member co-operatives will be made only through a single sales organization, the firm of Wood and Pohorylis, of New York, which will be sole distributors for co-operative fish products throughout the world. Processing and sales will be determined by the directors of the Federation.

Directors of the Federation will decide if fish will be sold fresh, frozen, salted, etc., and whether it will be sold, on the Pacific coast, in the United States, or elsewhere.

Further development of the fishing industry, involving the entry of the co-operatives into the fish canning industry and the construction of cold storage plants at Vancouver and Prince Rupert is also anticipated.

The convention recommended that, when fishing vessels now owned by the armed services are returned to the industry, preference in sales be given to bona fide fishermen.

Jack Deane, of Prince Rupert was appointed manager of the Federation at a directors' meeting held following the convention, and the following were appointed to the executive:
 President, L. H. C. Phillips,

McNAUGHTON PLEADS FOR FAIR TRIAL

 Minister A. G. L. McNaughton, in a statement today, asked that the method of volunteering enlistment to provide reinforcements for Canadian forces overseas be given a fair trial. He expressed the belief that the problem would be solved.

McNaughton said that conferences with Maj. General Pearkes, G.O.C., Pacific Command, and district officers commanding, showed the existence of a number of factors which operated to deter or prevent men in the Home Defence army from volunteering for overseas service.

The officers had assured Mc-Naughton that on their return to their stations they would make every endeavour to provide the numbers of men required by the voluntary conversion of men from the N.R.M.A. status, or by enlistments, or by freeing men from home defence and other local establishments who had already volunteered for overseas service.

WEDGE SHOES FOR MEN

 IN ANTWERP

Writing to his father, J. E.
 Unwin, Moresby Ave., Sergeant Jack Unwin tells interestingly of spending an afternoon in Antwerp while on leave. Jack, who was with the old 102nd. here, has been overseas for years and has been in the thick of the fighting in France this year.

Everything seemed quite busy.
 You would hardly know there was a war on, writes Jack. "I visited one of the most modern department stores I've ever seen. They had almost everything to sell from beer to ice cream. The display of toys was really good. About the best I've seen since before the war. I couldn't buy much as I didn't have much Belgian money. We have to deal in Dutch money and have quite a time switching from one kind to another. We're not allowed so much to spend now so we are not as well off as in Blighty.

"We are supposed to be receiving fresh rations more often so it will be a change from canned stew, bully beef and more stew. If I ever catch the guy who invented stew of herrings canned in tomato sauce, I'll push him over the side of the dock.
 A few weeks ago we had some good pork when a Jerry ration dump was captured.

"Things are going along nicely just now. There is still lots of rain but we have a house to stay in.

"The boys are very pleased to hear about the new minister of national defence. We were all sorry when Gen. McNaughton went back to Canada as he was well liked. Now we feel that things are really going to happen. The overseas army is planning on making 'Andy' the next prime Minister."

CANADA'S VETERANS Their Post-War Opportunities
 This is the tenth of a series of advertisements to inform the people of Canada of plans to re-establish men and women of the armed forces. To get the full details save and read every advertisement.

For complete information write for the booklet, "Back to Civil Life."

A Worthwhile Work For All Canadians — THE COMMUNITY'S SHARE IN RE-ESTABLISHMENT

This is the final advertisement in the series dealing with Canada's plans for the re-establishment of its men and women in the armed forces. Previous statements have told of the Canadian legislation, and have outlined the opportunities open after discharge to the men and women in uniform.
 Cash grants paid on discharge have been reviewed and service men and women have been advised how they may take advantage of the post-discharge program. It is important that these things be understood fully, not only by those in the Navy, Army and Air Force, but also by all citizens of Canada.

ALL HAVE A RESPONSIBILITY
 The problem of re-establishment, however, can not be solved alone by Parliament providing machinery and financing. Neither can it be solved merely by the men and women in uniform taking advantage of that machinery and that financing. To be fully successful the Canadian plan for returning its fighting forces to civilian life needs and must have the full support of all. It needs support from employers, and the help of organized labour, skilled trades and other workers. It needs, above all, the help of the communities from which these men and women come.

PLANS ARE WIDESPREAD
 As has been outlined, the Canadian plan for re-establishment is so all-embracing that it has been described as the most complete of any of the United Nations. There are cash grants at discharge, coupled with the war service gratuity and re-establishment credit.
 There is protection against illness and unemployment, and pensions for those disabled as a result of service. Wide opportunity is provided for state financed training either on the vocational or in university level, with assistance in financing a business or in returning to farms and commercial fishing. The home owning provisions are generous—and because Canada throughout the war, has guarded against inflation and has financed soundly, all this monetary assistance is worth one hundred cents on the dollar. Canadians who have served will return to a nation sound financially.

MANY ARE HELPING NOW Already government authorities are receiving a great deal of voluntary assistance. Veterans' organizations, such as the Canadian Legion, the Canadian Corps Association, the War Amputations of Canada, the Army and Navy Veterans, and others are rendering magnificent service. Canadian service clubs, and women's organiza-

THE FUNCTIONS OF VOLUNTEER COMMITTEES Volunteer Citizens Committees are set up under a government order-in-council. They are an official part of the Canadian re-establishment machinery. In a broad sense their function is to assist in the community re-establishment problems. These vary in different centres, but in a general sense the committees:
 1. Organize home coming receptions for veterans.
 2. Give local publicity to the re-establishment program.
 3. Give advice and counsel to veterans on their re-establishment problems.
 4. Assist in securing employment.
 5. Advise the government on policies and on local problems.
 These, however, are only highlights of the work which can be done, for the field is wide and the work is well worthwhile.

HOW TO ORGANIZE
 In many communities where Volunteer Citizens' Committees have been formed, initial leadership has been provided by municipal authorities and veterans' organizations. Usually service clubs, business men and other community bodies have been invited to assist. The co-operation and aid of government authorities is available, for the problem of community re-establishment is regarded as a most important part of the work. If your community has not already formed a volunteer citizens' committee, full details and assistance may be secured by writing to the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

VETERANS' WELFARE OFFICERS ARE STATIONED IN KEY CENTRES THROUGHOUT CANADA. THEY ARE THE FRIENDS OF EX-SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN. IT IS THEIR DUTY TO ADVISE AND ASSIST ALL EX-SERVICE PERSONNEL WITH THEIR RE-ESTABLISHMENT PROBLEMS. IF THERE IS ANYTHING ABOUT THE REHABILITATION PROGRAM WHICH YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND CONSULT YOUR NEAREST
