BO-ME-HI GIRLS WIN

Are Making Up For Lost Time in Ladies' Hoop League

The Bo-Me-Hi girls' basketball team, last quintet of the area Women's League to go into action this season, made up for lost time when they won their second game in three nights by defeating the C.W.A.C.'s 10 to 7 Saturday at Seal Cove. Playing heads-up ball, the High School squad rolled up a ten-point lead before the losers broke into the scoring column in the fourth quarter. When they got going, however, the C.W.A.C.'s gave a good account of themselves, racking up their seven counters in short order. With the winners stressing team-play, the top scorer on the club was Sandhals, who tallied four counters. Hill of C.W.A.C.'s, the loop's leading sniper, secured six points to bring her total to 26. The lineups were as follows: Bo-Me-Hi—Sandhals 6, Berg, Pavlikis 2, Balagno, Gray 2, Engelecke, Levine, Thornton, Hamilton, Anderson, Laird, Bulger. C.W.A.C.'s—Hill 6, Molitor, McMullen 1, Bullen, Drinkwater, Chemko, Osadchuk. Referee—Lt. Channell. Scorer—Watson.

Standings of the Women's League follows:

	W	L	Pts.
W.D.'s	3	0	6
Bo-Me-Hi	2	0	4
C.W.A.C.'s	1	2	2
Musselmeils	1	2	2
Allies	1	2	2

*Won game by default.

EMERGENCY AT McBRIDE

Travel Record Made for Mother and New-born Babe

A travel record was made recently when a freight train was turned into an ambulance to take a day old baby and its mother to McBride Red Cross Outpost Hospital.

When, at midnight, the hospital received a hurry call for a doctor to attend a woman 35 miles up the line, neither doctor nor transportation was available.

Matron and nurse commandeered a railway speeder and arrived in time to deliver a baby. Hospital care was found necessary, so the following day a freight train was flagged and the patients transferred in the caboose to the Red Cross hospital. Lives of both mother and child were saved by this prompt emergency service.

Three Red Cross outpost hospitals in B.C. have been busy during the past year as more and more settlers flock into the hinterland. These institutions, established in outlying districts not served by other agencies, are the Red Cross contribution to the health and well-being of British Columbia's population. McBride hospital has been particularly busy recently and alterations are being made to increase the present facilities and accommodations.

Terrace Service Wives' Meeting

TERRACE, Nov. 2—On Thursday afternoon, a tea was held in the Highlanders Camp for the wives of the officers and men of the Fifteenth Canadian Infantry Brigade. About sixty women were present. The purpose of the tea was to bring all the soldiers' wives together and have them become acquainted with each other. Brigadier A. R. Roy addressed the gathering and outlined the plan for certain activities which he would like to see carried out during the winter months.

PRINCE GEORGE

Fifteenth annual convention of the Prince George Teachers' Association opened on Thursday with some 75 delegates registered for the initial session which was marked by an address of welcome by Mayor A. M. Patterson.

Staff of the Prince George Theatres Limited met recently at a banquet to honor Mr. and Mrs. Levi Graham who are retiring from the theatre business. A. D. Creer, consulting engineer of Vancouver, will be retained by the city to give a written outline of a sewer layout and disposal plant for Prince George, together with a rough estimate of cost. City council decided.
